GERMAN MINE-LAYING PLANES DRIVEN OFF FROM BRITISH SHORES

Scattered From Skies After Attempt to Sow Their Seeds of Destruction in Estuaries of Thames And Humber—Hammering Steadily at Forces of Germany in Scandinavia

LONDON, April 22 (AP).—Great Britain, hammering steadily at German forces in Scandinavia both by land and air; fought off a flurry of German mine-laying planes from her own shores tonight.

The German mine layers were driven off apparently while engaged in attempting to lay mines in approaches to the Thames and Humber Estuaries, the Air Ministry said.

Barking fusillades of anti-aircraft fire and the dogged pursuit of defensive planes scattered them from the skies over a number of England's East and Southeast coastal towns.

NO DAMAGE REPORTED

There were no air raid alarms, and despite the rattling fall of shrapnel, no reports of damage.

In Norway tonight Britain announced "considerable success" for the Allied expeditionary forces after landings at "many places," while British bombers hurled explosive destruction on Germany's aerial troop ferry route between Denmark and Norway.

The report of land success came from the War Office in a brief statement. It said the triumphs were achieved "in the face of great difficulties," and that British Tommies have made contact with the Norwegian forces and are giving the hard-pressed Norsemen "all the support in their power."

It was reported that Major-General Adrian Carton de Wiart, V.C.,

COAST STREWN WITH WRECKAGE

Howling Gales Cause of Heavy Damage Through New England

BOSTON, April 22 (AP).—A howling northeast gale, accompanied by giant tides, raging seas and a mixture of rain, snow and sleet, left many sections of the New England Coast strewn with wreckage tonight, while several Northeastern Maine communities repaired communications after being isolated.

Damage estimates throughout New England ran to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Indications were that the week-end storm had blown itself out. The Coast Guard's Quoddy, Me., station reported that the wind, which once hit a fifty-three-mile velocity, had dropped to thirty miles an hour and was continuing to abate.

There, the old Navy Wharf and several boats, wharves and buildings used in the sardine fishery were demolished.

The patrol boat Travis was sent to Eastport, near the Canadian border and close to the stalemated Passamaquoddy tidal power project, to assist in eradicating damage.

Tides in that area, where the world's highest tides rise and fall, were reported to have reached thirty feet. An average normal tide was estimated at about eighteen feet.

Shore cottages along the Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine seaboards suffered severely as pounding seas undermined foundations.

Highway accidents were numerous, owing to glazed or snow-covered pavements, but none of a serious nature were reported.

In some inland sections, the Spring storm deposited a foot of snow.

Motors Employees Vote for Walkout

OSHAWA, Ont., April 22 (CP).—Union officials tonight announced 81 per cent of voting employees of the General Motors Corporation voted in favor of a strike. The vote was taken in connection with union demands for alterations in the working agreement that ended their 1937 walkout.

All divisions were represented in tonight's vote, with 2,500 employees participating.

Union officials claimed to have obtained the necessary two-thirds vote, and announced the strike deadline as 2 p.m., P.S.T., Wednesday.

CHOSEN FOR HIGH POSTS

Vice-Chiefs Appointed on Headquarters Staffs of Three British Services

LONDON, April 22 (CP).—The Government tonight strengthened the headquarters staffs of the three fighting services and ordered a general speed-up in aircraft production.

In the biggest change in the military set-up since the outbreak of hostilities, the Government appointed vice-chiefs of staff for the Admiralty, the War Office and the Air Ministry to relieve the chiefs of staff of some of the physical strain of directing operations twenty-four hours a day.

Here are the new appointments:

THREE VICE-CHIEFS

Vice-chief of Naval Staff: Vice-Admiral Tom S. V. Phillips, veteran of thirty-eight years in the navy with great experience in the work of destroyers. He will assist Admiral of the Fleet Sir Dudley Pound.

Vice-chief of the Imperial General Staff: General Sir John G. Dill, now commander of the First Army Corps in France and one of the most able of Britain's military leaders. He will assist General Sir Edmund Ironside.

Vice-chief of Air Staff: Air Marshal R. E. C. Pierse, who served as pilot of bombers in the Great War and has since commanded the Royal Air Force in Palestine and Trans-Jordan. He will assist Air Chief Marshal Sir Cyril Newall.

The new vice-chiefs will be members, respectively, of the Board of Admiralty, the Army Council and the Air Council.

It was learned that Sir Samuel Hoare, recently appointed Air Secre-

FLOAT FROM SKY TO IMPRISONMENT

Norwegian Cadets Capture 150 Men Landing From Planes in Central Norway

STOCKHOLM, April 22 (CP-Havas). — Two hundred heavily armed German parachutists floated down on Dombas, key railway junction in Central Norway, in a futile attempt last night to block British troops striking into the heart of the country, it was learned today.

Young Norwegian military cadets were reported to have captured 150 of the Germans as they reached earth. Dombas is a strategic junction connected by rail with Andalsnes where British troops are landing in force. From Dombas the Britons can strike along railways northward to Trondhjem or southward toward Hamar in the Oslo region.

Statement Gives Full Summary of Two Navies' Loss

Formal Communication Discounts Continued German Claims of Sinkings of Royal Naval Vessels—Details Given Showing Nazi Losses Twenty-Four Exclusive of Submarines

LONDON, April 22 (AP).—Germany's continued claims of sinkings of Royal Naval vessels brought a formal British statement tonight which summarized Britain's and Germany's naval losses since war began. It showed that the Nazis had lost twenty-four ships, exclusive of a large number of submarines.

British losses, including submarines, number eighteen. Submarines were listed at five, and the losses included the armed merchant cruiser Rawalpindi, which went down with all her guns blazing against overwhelming odds in an encounter early in the war.

The statement clearly showed that whereas Germany's losses represented a staggering blow to her naval strength, Britain's strength at sea remains unimpaired.

ONE CAPITAL SHIP

Of the fifteen capital ships Britain possessed at the start of the war only the Royal Oak has been lost. The Courageous is the only one of seven aircraft carriers lost. Britain

TO BRING DOWN BUDGET TODAY

Higher Taxes and Rise in Postage Rates Predicted In Great Britain

LONDON, April 22 (CP).—Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will present his budget to the House of Commons tomorrow and is expected to call for expenditure of £2,700,000,000 ($12,015,000,000) in the fiscal year 1940-41.

The new budget at that figure would be $884,000,000 above the expenses for the current fiscal year and the difference is expected to be met by fresh taxation and loans.

The Government probably will borrow half of the total expenditures.

Observers believe the exemption level for income taxes might be lowered, and that national defence surtaxes and excess profits levies increased.

INCREASES PREDICTED

An increase in the price of postage from a penny-halfpenny to twopence and added taxes on tobacco, tea, sugar, wireless sets, bicycles and cosmetics are predicted.

Informed quarters said increase in the income tax rate was most unlikely.

Sir John was expected to address the House at 3:30 p.m. (6:30 a.m., P.S.T.). He will be followed by Clement R. Attlee, Labor leader, and Sir Archibald Sinclair, Liberal.

DIED FOR LOST BALL

GALT, Ont., April 22 (CP).—Clifford Leachman, fifteen, was electrocuted before his mother's eyes late today when he climbed to the roof of a hydro sub-station to retrieve a golf ball.

HUGE WARSHIPS NOW ON TRIALS

Five of World's Largest Battleships Reported Completed in Britain

LONDON, April 23 (CP). — Hector Bywater, regarded as one of the best-informed commentators on naval matters, wrote today in The News Chronicle that the Royal Navy is about to be reinforced with five of the world's "largest, most powerfully armed and most strongly protected battleships."

These five—King George V, Prince of Wales, Duke of York, Jellicoe, Beatty—which were launched last year, "now are undergoing their trials," Mr. Bywater wrote.

"They are the largest battleships ever built by this country, and are exceeded in size only by the Lion and Temeraire, and two others not yet named which are still under construction, and will displace at least 40,000 tons," the commentator wrote.

These five floating fortresses mount ten 14-inch guns in two quadruple and one twin turrets, sixteen 5¼-inch guns and many lighter guns. Each will carry three aircraft, and 1,500 officers and men. They can attain thirty knots.

Completion raises Britain's capital ship strength to nineteen, Mr. Bywater said, while at least four more are being built.

Submarine Statement Inaccurate

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 22 (CP). —A submarine alarm from a point on the Newfoundland coast near here today threw officials into a flurry of investigation.

The report that came to the capital said one submarine had been seen submerging at the horizon while another stood by on the surface. Here's what investigators found on rushing to the spot:

The "submarines" consisted of two small steamers, one of which had been condemned and was towed to sea and sunk.

THREAT LESS IN ALBERTA

Better Conditions Reported From Province's Three Flood Fronts

EDMONTON, April 22 (CP). — Flood-threatened spots throughout Northern and Central Alberta hoped for cool weather without rain tonight, while the three major flood fronts reported better conditions and in southern sections efforts were made to resume communication and power lines disrupted by snow and sleet storms.

Flood waters were receding slowly in Drumheller, where scores of homes became partly submerged when the Michichi Creek overflowed and in a mile-square area of North Edmonton where at least twenty persons were homeless and 150 basements were flooded after Little Turnip Lake failed to hold waters flowing from a long ridge.

ICE ON FLATS

At Whitecourt, 135 miles northwest of Edmonton, the danger of further flooding was believed past, but ice still was packed over The Flats, low farmlands east of the town, thirty feet deep in some spots. The ice may prevent farming of some of the land this season.

Forty persons, including a mother and her one-day-old baby, were rescued when ice jammed on the Athabaska River and a wall of ice and water, ten feet high in some places, roared over The Flats, killing hundreds of head of livestock and sweeping away farm homes and granaries. Fortunately, the flood came at 10 a.m. and no lives were lost, although some had close calls as the water rolled along at fifteen miles an hour.

STRUGGLING BACK

CALGARY, April 22 (CP).—Alberta's storm-paralyzed power and communication systems struggled slowly back into operation today as weary emergency crews strung endless wires through the central section of the province, hit by an April

WINS ELECTION IN THREE RIVERS

Robert Ryan Has Majority of 1,000 In Deferred Test—Both Candidates Liberal

THREE RIVERS, Que., April 22 (CP).—Robert Ryan was elected today as member of Parliament for Three Rivers, increasing the Liberal Party's representation in the 245-seat House of Commons to 179 members.

Complete returns for the riding's 121 polls gave Ryan, financial director of Three Rivers and a former alderman, a majority of 1,010 votes over Wilfrid Gariepy, his only opponent. The count was Ryan 9,789 votes and Gariepy 8,779. Both ran as Liberals.

Gariepy represented Three Rivers in the last Parliament as an Independent Liberal.

The election was deferred until almost a month after the rest of Canada had voted because of the death of Willie Poisson, official Liberal candidate, on the eve of the March 26 polling.

CROMWELL TO RESIGN HIS POST NEXT MONTH

OTTAWA, April 22 (CP).—J. M. R. Cromwell, United States minister to Canada, said today he would resign his position May 21, the date of the primary election in New Jersey in which he will seek nomination as Democratic candidate for the Senate.

"May 21 is the date I shall resign," the United States minister told The Canadian Press.

New Transportation System Tenders Are Retarded by Motion

Move of Alderman Archie Wills That Negotiations Be Suspended Is Tabled for Two Weeks at Suggestion of Alderman Williams

A MOTION of Alderman Archie Wills that present efforts to secure a more modern transportation system be discontinued until at least six months after the end of the war was tabled for two weeks at a City Council meeting yesterday afternoon.

Seconded by Alderman B. J. Gadsden, the motion read:

"That, in view of the uncertainty created by the war and the expressed views of Government leaders that all energies of this nation, both physical and financial, should be concentrated on the prosecution of the war; therefore, be it resolved that the council discontinue its plan to replace street cars with buses, and, further, be it resolved that the council take the necessary steps with the Provincial Government, Public Utilities Commission, the B.C. Electric Railway Company, Ltd., or any other affected body to have street cars operate in Victoria for the duration of the war and at least six months afterwards."

In support of his motion, Alderman Wills quoted Graham F. Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada

CANADIAN AND FRENCH TROOPS FORM SPEARHEAD OF ATTACK

Men From Dominion and Alpine Chasseurs Playing Important Role in Allied Drive South Toward Trondhjem—Further Details Not Available—German Landing Is Foiled

Allies Making Rapid Progress In Three Norwegian Sections

WITH ALLIED FORCES ON THE TRONDHJEM FRONT, April 23 (CP-Havas).—Canadian troops with French Alpine Chasseurs today formed the spearhead of an Allied army driving southward along the railway running from Namsos to German-held Trondhjem. The Canadian and French units—right at home in Northern Norway's deep snow—were said to be playing an important role in heavy fighting which started last night and still was under way early today near Stiklestad, midway between Namsos and Trondhjem.

The Allied forces occupied Steinkjer, at the heads of Trondhjem Fjorg about forty miles south of Namsos, and then pushed on to Stiklestad, another twenty miles to the south.

GERMAN ATTACK FAILS

The Germans failed in a desperate attempt to strike from the rear and cut the Allied column in half. German ships tried to land troops at Steinkjer behind the Allied vanguard, but a strong detachment had been left in the town and this force proved adequate to foil the German landing.

Beyond learning that the Canadians and the French were in the spearhead of the southward advance, this correspondent was unable to determine any further details concerning them.

Allied troops which landed at Andalsnes are driving on Trondhjem from the southeast in a move to form a junction with the troops advancing from the North, and thus close a steel ring around the Nazi garrison. The Germans were reported throwing up fortifications around Trondhjem, but Norwegian military officials were optimistic about the progress of the Allied drive.

The Allies were reported to be making considerable progress on the

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1940, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, April 22 (By Cable).—British forces, according to the Norwegian High Command, are now fighting with the Germans on the Oslo Front. They landed at Namsos and other Atlantic coastal points, including Andalsnes, and pushed inland towards Lake Mjosa, according to Norwegian reports.

They are also concentrated north and south of Trondhjem and are rapidly being reinforced here.

The German Command announces it has sent more troops to Oslo, but its chief problem is how to reinforce Trondhjem, which is now threatened by the Allies from land and sea. The Germans are preparing defensive positions and troops that crossed Norway to the Swedish frontier, thus cutting the country in two, are believed to have been recalled to aid the Trondhjem garrison.

Hegre Fortress still holds out, though only one hundred Norwegians are in charge of it.

The German communique shows much anxiety about Trondhjem for it would certainly not have mentioned the dispatch of reinforcements there unless with the object of impressing the Allies with the difficulty of attacking it.

The Times military correspondent thinks the enemy will make every effort to relieve the port and will send, if he can, troops from the Oslo sector.

Intensification of the air war is to be extended, says The Times aeronautical correspondent. The Allies are continuing their attacks on German bases both in Norway and Denmark. As they have already command of the sea, the next step must be control of the air.

Already the Royal Air Force has seized the initiative.

The magnificent victories for British aircraft on the Western Front, says The Times special correspondent there, show once again the superiority of Britain's air fighters.

Battles, some of which were fought at a height of 24,000 feet, resulted in the loss of eight German machines at the price of one forced landing on the British side.

Britain is ready to reopen talks on trade with the Soviet, whose dictator, Stalin, it is noted carefully, refrained from sending Hitler any birthday congratulations. These talks will be purely explanatory and will be conditioned by Russia's willingness not to send war supplies to Germany.

Nazi newspapers continue to boast of a three-power alliance of Germany, Italy and Russia, which is to undertake "joint action in the Balkans," particularly in Yugoslavia.

Mussolini, it is remarked, has made it clear in his birthday message to Hitler how he hopes for a Nazi victory.

"The German fleet has been crippled," says The Times, "so we now find ourselves in a position to make use of our naval forces if any international situation should appear to demand it."

The Times also points out—the significant fact for Mussolini who trusts so much to his air force—that not a single Allied troopship has been hit by a Nazi bomb.

BRITISH BAG TEN PLANES

R.A.F. Airmen Outmatch Germans in Fighting Over Siegfried Line

WITH THE ROYAL AIR FORCE IN FRANCE, April 22 (CP-Reuter's). —Wreckage of two more German planes, both Messerschmitt "109" fighters, brought down by British Hurricanes during the week-end, was located behind the French line today. This brings the R.A.F. total "bag" in forty-eight hours to ten.

One of the German machines accounted for, at first believed to have been a Heinkel, has proved on examination to be a bomber reconnaissance plane of a newer type. The plane fell near the Swiss frontier on Saturday after being crippled in a running chase for 100 miles over French territory by a twenty-seven-year-old Irish flying officer from London. Its crew of four were taken prisoner.

MAKES FORCED LANDING

The British airman was forced to land when a bullet damaged his engine, but he himself was not hurt. The type of this German plane has not been disclosed.

Today the French air force was intent on adding to the "bag" of two German machines shot down by

FRENCH BOMBARD NEW NAZI FORTS

Artillery and Patrol Activity Increases on Western Front—German Attack Repulsed

PARIS, April 22 (CP-Havas).—Artillery and patrol action broke out in the sector east of the Moselle today as large-scale air operations continued all along the Western Front.

The morning communique reported "activity by our patrols east of the Moselle," and this evening's announced that an enemy attack in this zone had been repulsed by artillery fire.

Dispatches from Luxembourg said newly constructed German fortifications in the Tettingen region had been subjected to heavy bombardment by French artillery during the last twenty-four hours. Some sixty large-calibre shells were fired into the fortifications last night, while ten French planes hovered overhead.

Populace Warned to Leave Narvik Before Bombardment Starts

British Forces Reported in Position to Take Ore Port at Any Time—Action Delayed Only To Avoid Causing Harm to People

STOCKHOLM, April 22 (AP).—British authorities, in broadcast warnings to the populace of Narvik, threatened to bombard that northern ore harbor today, and with their Norwegian allies clamped a slowly-closing vise on German-occupied Trondhjem, vital west coast port and railway centre 400 miles farther south.

The Germans and Norwegians were reported fighting at Melhus, only twenty miles south of Trondhjem on the Trondhjem-Oslo railway. British troops were reported at Storen, five miles to the rear.

BRITISH AT STEINKJER

A main force of British troops, working south from the other side of the port, was reported to have reached Steinkjer, reported Norwegian concentration centre fifty miles north of Trondhjem.

This was about fifteen miles north of Vardalsora, where fighting between advance detachments was reported yesterday.)

(A Reuters News Agency dispatch from Norway said that fierce fighting is in progress at Stiklestad, north of Trondhjem but south of Steinkjer, between Allied and German troops.)

To the east of the city, the Norwegians were reported still in possession of Hegra fortress guarding the railway to the Swedish border.

Allied forces were said to control the important railway district be-

GAINS GROUND WITH ALL ARMS

Minister Expresses Full Confidence in Allies' Success in Norway

LONDON, April 22 (CP).—Erik Colban, Norwegian Minister to Great Britain, said tonight during a broadcast that "we feel that all the fighting forces, including the air force, are gaining ground" in Norway.

This led some observers to speculate on the possibility that the British and French forces may have begun to establish air bases in Norway coincident with widening Allied land drives in Scandinavia.

Observers coupled the Norwegian Minister's remarks with the War Office bulletin that British troops had achieved "considerable success" in Norway, and said that these two words probably covered developments of extreme importance.

Mr. Colban expressed full confidence in the success of Allied action in Norway.

STRONG AND RAPID

"I know that the Allied Governments have taken vigorous action for the battle to be fought on Norwegian soil," he said. "I trust I commit no indiscretion in saying that I have His Brittanic Majesty's Government with me in this, that the action will be very strong and rapid.

"We all know that every day and every hour counts. The sacrifices we all must face may be lessened if we do not hesitate to make them now. Action must also be strong and rapid to prevent Norway's economic life from coming to a standstill. Its seaborne trade must be reopened without delay."

PREPARING FOR AERIAL BLOCKADE

Allied Ministries Studying Plan to Stop Sending of Contraband By Air Route

PARIS, April 22 (AP).—The French and British ministries are studying a plan for the "aerial policing" of Germany, Blockade Minister Georges Monnet disclosed tonight, and specifically mentioned Lisbon airport, where Pan-American planes land on their trans-Atlantic schedule, as attracting the attention of the Allies.

"Too many neutral airplanes, of neutral appearance, take foreign exchange and merchandise to Germany," the French Blockade Minister said. "Otherwise the Lisbon (Portugal) airport would not collect each day a million (apparently francs) in customs duties."

Warns Canadians To Be Ready to Make Sacrifices

Governor of Bank of Canada Says Citizens Will Think Twice About Expenditures—Money Must Be Used For War Costs Rather Than For Private Purposes

MONTREAL, April 22 (C.P.).—Graham F. Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, told Canadians today their "sacrifices are still to come" and they must spend their money to buy shells, guns, ships and airplanes rather than for private purposes.

Addressing the Montreal Canadian Club, Mr. Towers said increased incomes from war activity "must be returned to the state in the form of taxation or subscription to war loans." In the case of many, a larger percentage of pre-war income would have to be contributed or lent.

Canadians must provide Canadian dollars to the United Kingdom to enable the Mother Country to buy supplies from Canada, and they must save enough to repatriate Canadian securities now owned in the United Kingdom.

He said this would be the reply to the claim of totalitarian states that democracies "can't take it—in other words, pull in their belts."

WILL THINK TWICE

"The people in this country are going to have to think twice before they make expenditures that are not essential. They are going to have to ask themselves: 'Can I do without this article or this service—this cruise or this imported luxury?'

"We shall only be asked to give up some material things—not our liberty of thought and action——

"If this situation is well understood, I have no doubts in regard to our ability to solve the problem."

The real cost of the war, Mr. Towers said, must be met out of current production. "There are no countries from whom we can borrow. We have to stand on our own feet."

WAR SAVING CERTIFICATES

The response to the first war loan was gratifying and "it represented the very finest type of distribution." The Minister of Finance has stated that plans are being considered for the issue of War Saving Certificates. These will give the vast majority of our people the chance to play a real part in the war effort."

In a review of the operations of the Foreign Exchange Control Board, Mr. Towers made the following summary of the past six months:

"(1) There has been no export of capital of any importance.

"(2) Stability has been preserved in the security markets and war financing has been successful on a large scale at reasonable rates.

"(3) Exchange rates have remained unchanged since September 15.

"(4) We have a commencement of the task of providing Canadian dollars to the United Kingdom.

IN GOOD ORDER

"In other words, the financial machinery is in good order. But what has been accomplished so far is only a fraction of what must be done before we reach the goal of victory."

He said that in operating exchange control every effort had been made to play fair so far as non-residents are concerned. "We have met all our obligations; indeed, we have gone further and allowed the withdrawal of Canadian dollar income at official exchange rates. In effect, what we have done is to ask the non-resident to leave his capital in this country, so that we may avoid curtailment of the resources which are needed for the conduct of the war.

"In doing so, I believe we are serving the non-resident's best interests as well as our own. Control or no control, the great bulk of the foreigner's capital would have remained at risk in this country; and so foreigners were bound to have a vital stake, both in our ultimate success and in that degree of efficiency of organization which will leave us with a sound structure when peace comes."

TRANSFER OF FUNDS

"We can assist by repatriation of Canadian securities now owned by residents of the United Kingdom. A start has been made on this programme, the most important single transfer so far being the redemption of the Dominion Government 3½ per cent loan which was outstanding in the London market in the amount of approximately £20,500,000. In carrying out this transaction, we bought sterling from the United Kingdom Control with which to pay off the bond holders, and the United Kingdom Control received $91,000,000 of Canadian money for use in this country.

"Repatriation is not limited to Government bonds. Provincial, municipal and corporate securities which are brought home to this country all contribute something to the stock of Canadian dollars reaching the hands of United Kingdom authorities.

ACQUIRES NEW ASSET

"This method of providing Canadian dollars is obviously not the same thing as granting credits—although it provides the same immediate results. Nor is it the same thing as spending money on our wartime activities. For when we repatriate securities, the country acquires a new asset. Nevertheless the initial economic effects of repatriation are the same as if we were granting credits or spending the money ourselves.

"We are producing materials and supplies which are not being exchanged for other materials and supplies for the use of our people. Our production is, in fact, being exchanged for pieces of paper—valuable pieces of paper representing debts we had incurred in past years, or shares of our corporations.

"It has recently been indicated that our war costs for the fiscal year which has just commenced might be at least $500,000,000. I cannot mention a definite figure for repatriation during this twelve-month period. But whatever the figure may be, it has to be added to the $500,000,000 to give the total which our people must provide in taxes or savings to cover wartime requirements.

VAST SUM INVOLVED

"The sum involved is extraordinarily large—so large that it presents a problem which can only be solved consciously and as a result of good organization and nation-wide co-operation.

"In peacetime we have great difficulty acting as a nation. Each segment of the people, each section of the country, each industry, tends to feel that it has special claims for consideration.

"In the test that lies ahead of us, let us hope that all these special claims will be shelved for the common good, and that while we demand equality of sacrifice we do not spend our time thinking up reasons why someone else would bear the burden.

"The call to serve in the armed forces is one which anyone can hear and understand. The call to serve on the economic front is often not so clear.

"But no one who knows the temper of the Canadian people can doubt for one moment their willingness to respond to any and every call which in their minds is related to the wholehearted and successful prosecution of the war."

BELGIUM FIXES DEFENCE TAXES

Neutrality Violated by Foreign Planes—Two Dutch Ships Sunk

BRUSSELS, April 22 (CP-Havas)—The Belgian Cabinet in a seven-hour meeting today decided on new national defence taxes and instituted a weekly meatless day, beginning next Monday, as war raged in the air above the Lowlands and struck two Dutch vessels at sea.

Three French pursuit planes shot down a Nazi machine above the Neufchateau region of Belgium this morning. One German was killed, a second wounded and a third lightly hit. The Defence Ministry announced it would make "the necessary protests."

NEUTRALITY VIOLATED

Foreign airplanes, two of which were identified as German, violated Belgian neutrality "several times" during the day, the ministry said. Belgian defences went into action.

The Dutch steamship Bernise, 951 tons, was sunk off the coast of Norway. Her crew of eighteen were rescued. The Dutch trawler Erin was bombed and machine-gunned by a German plane, but succeeded in making port.

Reports reaching Amsterdam said that German authorities are using threats to bring Netherland citizens living in Germany into the Dutch Nazi party. Those refusing to join may be expelled from the country.

CITY'S ACTION IS CRITICIZED

Both Esquimalt and Oak Bay Object to Calling for Separate Tenders

Criticism over the fact that the City of Victoria might call for tenders for a bus transportation system on its own was voiced by Reeve Alex Lockley of Esquimalt, at a council meeting last night. A communication was also read from Oak Bay protesting against the suggestion of the city calling for separate bids.

"The city is determined to call for separate tenders for Victoria alone, but there is nothing we can do about it," the Reeve said, when a report from G. H. Sedger on the municipality's participation in the proposed scheme came up.

"We feel it should be a unified system. . . . Many difficulties may arise if the city takes this action; it has either got to be a unified or a separate system."

The Reeve also expressed the view that it was probably not the time to institute a bus system, in view of world conditions.

NOT CONSISTENT

The communication from Oak Bay declared that it had been decided not to press the matter in open council, so it had been dealt with by the committee as a whole. The tender form had been approved in general, but it was felt that part two, permitting the city to call for separate bids, was not consistent with earlier agreements that tenders should be called for simultaneously. One transportation system should serve the three municipalities, Oak Bay thought.

It was felt that the matter was too important to deal with after the regular business last night, so the council will hold a special meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock for this purpose.

$700 FOR ROAD

A communication from Major H. L. Sherwood informed the council that the Department of National Defence would contribute up to $700 for repairs to Stephenson Street, from the corner of Munro to Vaughan Streets. The department will be asked to pay a portion of the cost towards necessary repairs on Peters Street. It was said that these thoroughfares were used almost exclusively by the military authorities.

On May 4 as many councillors as possible will tour the municipality to make an inspection of all roads and sidewalks, and determine which is the most necessary work to be done this year.

Authorization was given to purchase a "Motomower" grass-cutting machine from the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Company, Ltd., at a cost of approximately $506, complete.

POPULACE WARNED TO LEAVE NARVIK

tween Trondhjem and Oslo, and at the same time to be driving at the city from the north with forces landed at Namsos.

In gaining control of the railways, it was reported, the Allies had recaptured Elverum, sixty miles north of German-held Oslo, and Hamar, twenty miles to the west.

They also held Donbas, 120 miles north of Hamar, and thus were in command of three key points along the lines of communication between Oslo and Trondhjem, two of the principal centres of the German occupation.

Railways appeared to be the key objectives in all three of the Allies' major operations.

Narvik is the terminus of the railway line over which the Germans could, in the past, obtain Swedish iron ore.

ALLIES USING RAILWAYS

South of Trondhjem, the Norwegians, British and French were reported to be using the railways for troops transport. They were said to be moving toward contact with the other forces coming from the North for a joint offensive on the German position.

The British broadcast warnings three times today to inhabitants of Narvik to leave the town before a British naval barrage was laid down to drive the Germans out.

The Germans there were reported in semi-official Norwegian reports here to be virtually trapped. The Norwegians were said to be to the northeast, the British to the east and south, and the British fleet stationed off the fjords and islands seaward.

Norwegian semi-official sources said that the British could take Narvik any time, but up to now have been sparing in their efforts in the hope of avoiding any serious damage to property and harm to the people.

NAZI DETACHMENT TRAPPED

A detachment of Germans who attempted to drive north from Narvik was said to be trapped at Gratangen Fjord, where they were stalled in the snow and surrounded by sniping Norwegians, who take pot shots when the Nazis emerge from their farmhouse hideaways.

A German air raid on Dombas yesterday cost the United States its first official casualty of the war. He was Captain Robert M. Losey, assistant military attache at Stockholm, who was struck in the heart by a bomb splinter while taking shelter in a mountain tunnel.

Sweden, meanwhile, seeking to maintain her neutrality, sent a strong protest to Berlin against flights by German warplanes over her territory.

The note said these flights had been "especially numerous and grave" yesterday, and asked that measures be taken to prevent any repetition.

holder of a distinguished record as a combatant in the last war, is commanding the British forces in Central Norway.

Leslie Burgin, Minister of Supply, disclosed that Canadian manufacturers played an important part in outfitting the British expeditionary force to Norway. In view of the Winter conditions prevailing in much of Norway, the troops are equipped with special vests, socks, Arctic tents, mittens, fur caps, sleeping bags, sledges, skiing apparatus and other necessities.

The minister said he could not praise too highly the manufacturers of Canada and England who provided the necessary special equipment in absolute secrecy.

RAIDS ON STAVANGER

Before the War Office report on the activities of the troops, the Air Ministry told of new Royal Air Force raids on Stavanger airport in Southwestern Norway and Aalborg airport in Denmark last night.

It was the fourteenth time the German-occupied Stavanger airport has been raided by British bombers and was the second time in two nights that Britain has struck at the only large German-held airfield in Denmark.

The air force reported six German transport planes were believed destroyed at Stavanger and a building smashed and runways broken at Aalborg.

British flyers on the second raid said several fires still were burning from the raid the night before at Aalborg.

AIRCRAFT DESTROYED

The Air Ministry said the Stavanger airdrome was "bombed and machine-gunned" and "a number of enemy aircraft" destroyed when the R.A.F. swooped down on a group of fifty machines lining the crater-pocked field.

Along the rocky coasts of Norway, the naval patrol went on ceaselessly and silently. Britain boasted that the "lobe" of Norway's peninsula had been cut off from all but air communication with Germany.

Britons followed the march of events with keen interest while awaiting two important happenings tomorrow.

First, in point of time, will be the luncheon speech that Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, will make at a St. George's Day function.

A few hours later, Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will rise in the House of Commons and ask the nation in his budget for money to carry on the war.

MORALE EXCELLENT

The Allied expeditionary force in Norway was reported to have found the Norwegian equipment poor compared with Allied outfitting, but the Norwegian morale was reported as "excellent."

The Home Office became worried about possible bombings in Britain. To householders went warnings repeating those of last September, and it was expected the blackout will be enforced more strictly.

Far to the north, over Shetland Islands, British fighter planes drove off two planes. No bombs were dropped.

The Press Association's aviation correspondent estimated German plane losses from British raids on Danish-Norwegian fields at eighty to 100 planes destroyed or put out of commission. British losses were reported slight.

The Press Association's military correspondent said the Allied-Norwegian campaign has opened "very well" and that the German intelligence service had proved faulty in reporting Allied landings in Norway.

"In London today one fact is established—that Allied landings have gone very well," he said. "The losses suffered from enemy air attacks have been practically nil. In some respects, indeed, the B.E.F. has advanced more quickly than was expected."

"Prize fighters don't do as much road work as they used to. How do they keep in condition?"

"Running back and forth to the bank, I guess."

TORONTO UNIT MOUNTS GUARD

Sergeant of Scottish to Serve as Orderly to King Until Thursday

LONDON, April 22 (CP).—The King met his Toronto Scottish Guard for the first time this morning, when he returned to Buckingham Palace after a brief holiday at Windsor Castle.

There was no ceremony as the Monarch, accompanied by the Queen, swept into the palace in an automobile. The battle-dressed Canadians smartly presented arms as the King saluted, and the Queen acknowledged the cheers of a small crowd gathered before the gates.

Princess Elizabeth, fourteen yesterday, and Princess Margaret Rose accompanied Their Majesties. Later, Queen Mary arrived for a family birthday luncheon party.

TO SERVE AS ORDERLY

A sergeant of Toronto Scottish was detailed to serve as orderly to the King, and two others, named as messengers, will carry the Royal commands for the next four days.

Sightseers noted the Toronto Scottish have been allowed to retain their distinctive headgear while guarding the palaces. They carry the steel hats, now part of regulation equipment of the Royal Guard, slung at the left shoulder.

It is understood Their Majesties will be present when the Toronto Scottish hand over to the next Royal Guard Thursday. A large crowd yesterday watched the regiment take over guard duty at Buckingham and St. James' Palaces from the Royal 22nd Regiment of Quebec.

BRITISH BAG TEN PLANES

French fighters and anti-aircraft guns on Saturday.

French Curtis planes tackled a Dornier "17" bomber and a Heinkel "111" in the British force area during the day.

The Dornier was forced down over the Belgian frontier. The pilot was killed. It is not known whether the Heinkel managed to escape a fall, too.

GERMANS OUTMATCHED

Engagements followed each other in quick succession between R.A.F. patrols and enemy flights of fighters and bombers. In each, despite superior numbers in all but one engagement, the Germans were outmatched.

More than once Hurricanes slipped audaciously over the German frontier and tackled enemy planes almost within sight of their own airdromes.

This was the case before noon on Sunday. Eight Hurricanes flew over to engage twelve of the single-engined Messerschmitt "109" fighters at a great height.

Two enemy planes which were shot down were seen to crash a short distance behind the Siegfried Line, and a third went to earth, apparently out of control. It is believed to have been seriously damaged.

The commanding officer of the Hurricane squadron engaged is stated to have got one of the three. It was his first operational trip in that locality. He was appointed to the squadron only this week.

LONDON, April 22 (CP).—A squadron of British cruisers steaming home from Norway, stopped in the middle of the North Sea and huddled about one warship while a surgeon removed an acute appendix.

While the operation was in progress a German Dornier flying boat attacked the warship. One bomb burst near a destroyer, but there was no damage. The aircraft escaped.

Brigadier Foster Due This Morning For Two-Day Stay

BRIGADIER W. W. Foster, D.S.O., V.D., director of auxiliary services in Canada, is expected to arrive here this morning from Vancouver, to spend today and tomorrow in Victoria. Brigadier Foster, who is engaged on an inspection trip across Canada in connection with his duties, reached Vancouver on Saturday morning. He left Great Britain on March 18 to return to Ottawa, following his official inspection tour in England and France.

City Will Renovate Several Structures At Willows Grounds

Grandstand to Be Taken Over on November 11, 1941, With Revenue Anticipated—Rat Extermination Motion Given Hoist

PRECAUTIONS will be taken to keep the grandstand at Willows Park in a good state of repair since it is to be taken over by the city on November 11, 1941, it was decided at a City Council meeting yesterday. Considerable discussion was held on a suggestion from the executive of the British Columbia Agricultural Association that the structure and jockey building be repainted.

Mayor Andrew McGavin commented that the grandstand would be taken over next year, adding that the Agricultural Association had received $38,000 from the city over a period of years. He wondered why the association could not pay for the painting and rewiring of six stables.

Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan stated some of the wiring had been condemned. Alderman R. A. C. Dewar pointed out revenue would eventually be received from the grandstand. Alderman Edward Williams thought the work should be done.

The public works committee was given the power to call for tenders.

A suggestion of Alderman John A. Worthington that power be sought to exterminate rats and make a direct charge on property for the service, tabled from last week, was given a two-week hoist. The alderman said he was preparing a brief on his proposal.

BUILDINGS TO GO

On motion of the health committee, it was decided to give the owners of twenty-six dilapidated buildings in various parts of the city sixty days in which to have them repaired or demolished.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the manager of the Hudson's Bay Company for a display of early photographs and relics of the city.

The parks committee was asked to deal with a suggestion of W. E. G. Crisford that a putting green be established at Beacon Hill Park.

A letter from James A. Griffith congratulated the council on the move to allow right turns to motorists on a red traffic signal, and for the financial statement of 1939.

An invitation was accepted from Victoria Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., to attend the annual Empire Day service at 10 o'clock on the morning of May 23.

A complaint from L. High in regard to garbage floating on the beaches, was received and filed. The parks and public works committees were asked to deal with an application from Charles Watson that he be transferred to Beacon Hill Park as a watchman.

"A lot of vandalism has been reported in city parks. Policemen are doing what they can, but the protection is not satisfactory," Alderman S. H. Okell commented.

PERMIT REFUSED

A permit to operate a wood yard near the city yard and pound was refused George Harknett.

Permission was granted the B.C. Telephone Company to extend lines on Blackwood Street and Rosebery Avenue.

Ralph Davis, draftsman, was placed on the permanent staff at the City Hall.

An application of an army major for permission to enter the city's watershed, was referred to the water board with power to act.

On recommendation of the assessor, an offer of $459.17 was accepted for the city's interest in a lot on the north side of Shasta Place, near St. Charles Street.

The inter-municipal committee was asked to deal with a petition from eleven Saanich residents of Carrick Street, objecting to any change in the name.

Alderman Okell suggested the purchase of a combination power mower, sickle and cultivator. He explained that meagre help from the relief department was anticipated for parks and boulevards during the Summer. The purchasing agent was asked to call for tenders.

FIVE LOTS SOLD

On recommendation of the lands committee, it was agreed to sell a lot on the north side of Quebec Street, between St. John and Oswego Streets, for $250; one on the east side of Roberts Street for $200; a third on the south side of Lotus Street for $400; a fourth on the west side of Young Street, between Michigan and Toronto Streets for $600; and property at the south-west corner of Johnson and Quadra Street for $1,250. The city purchased a small piece of property on Langley Street for $100, to complete a parcel for which offers have been received.

It was decided to inform Langford Speedways, Ltd., that no property was available in the city for the purpose of midget automobile racing.

Payment of $270 to the Provincial Government for relief Workmen's Compensation Act deductions, was ordered.

Permission was granted A. Muir, Vancouver, to subdivide property on Carnsew Street. An easement was granted to Josiah Smethurst for sewer purposes on Dupplin Street.

A vote of thanks was ordered dispatched to Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, and others, for the Provincial Recreation Centre display at the Armoury.

Long-Lost Ring Is Found Again After Twenty-Nine Years

WHEN Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kirchin, 146 Regina Avenue, were married in 1911, Mrs. Kirchin gave her husband a signet ring as a wedding gift. He accidentally lost it in his garden. Last Saturday, twenty-nine years later, while weeding, Mr. Kirchin uprooted a dandelion whose roots had entwined about the ring. Still in good condition, the ring bore the initials "G.W.K., 1911," plainly discernable on the inside.

In Spectacular Accident on Gorge Road

NO personal injuries and only slight property damage resulted from a spectacular accident at Maple Tree Bend, on the Gorge Road, about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. A large logging truck and trailer, in charge of William Grunow, Royal Oak, broke down just as it neared the bend, proceeding towards the city, and crashed through a fence at the roadside. Beyond the leveling of several yards of fence, no damage was done. The driver was unhurt. The truck was loaded with twelve forty-five-foot logs, which were cut at Sooke and are to be used for telephone poles. Chief Josiah Bull and Constable W. A. Pearson, of the Saanich Police, who investigated the mishap, may be seen in the background.

DEALING WITH WAGE DISPUTE

Appoint Conciliation Board To Settle Industrial Trouble At Vancouver

OTTAWA, April 22 (CP). — Labor Minister McLarty today announced appointment of a board of conciliation and investigation under the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, to deal with a dispute between the Burrard Dry Dock Company, Ltd., North Vancouver, and certain of its employees including machinists, plumbers and sheet metal workers.

On the joint recommendation of the other two board members, Professor H. F. Angus, Vancouver, was appointed chairman of the board. W. D. McLaren, Vancouver, was appointed on recommendation of the company; and Percy R. Bengough, also of Vancouver, was appointed on the men's recommendation.

The dispute arose in respect to wages.

SWITZERLAND INTERNS FOUR GERMAN AIRMEN

BASEL, Switzerland, April 22 (AP). —Switzerland today interned four German airmen and their new Dornier-21 bomber which landed at the Basel Civil Airport yesterday when they ran out of fuel over the French Maginot Line. Swiss painted out caricatures of Winston Churchill, Great Britain's First Lord of the Admiralty, which had been drawn on the wings.

"Say, you've been in that phone booth an hour, and haven't said a word!"

"Let me alone. I'm talking to my wife."

PASSED AWAY AT RIPE AGE

Mrs. Mary Ann Price, Aged Seventy-One, Died Sunday At Jubilee Hospital

Mrs. Mary Ann Price, well-known resident of Victoria for many years, died on Sunday afternoon in the Royal Jubilee Hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of William Henry Price, at one time secretary of the Victoria Conservative Association.

Born in Bury, Lancashire, England, in 1869, Mrs. Price came to Victoria forty-six years ago and has made her home here ever since. While here she had made a wide circle of friends who will deeply regret to learn of her passing.

She is survived by two sons, Victor Stanley Price, Monongahela, Pa., U.S.A., and Chester E. Price, Victoria; one daughter, Mrs. W. McCarrison, 972 Walker Street, with whom Mrs. Price resided; two stepsons, Joseph A. Price and G. Henry Price, both of Victoria; one stepdaughter, Mrs. A. E. Cullin, Seattle, and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel. Rev. Canon Chadwick will officiate and interment will take place at Ross Bay Cemetery.

MYSTERIOUS GUNMAN KILLING OFF HORSES

PENTICTON, April 22 (CP).—British Columbia Police are searching for a mysterious gunman who has killed at least six horses and wounded a number of others in the nearby White Lake district recently. An examination of the dead horses by Dr. G. H. Acres, veterinary surgeon, showed the animals had been shot by .22 calibre bullets.

Will Honor Judge On His Retirement

VANCOUVER, April 22 (CP).—The British Columbia Law Society will honor Chief Justice Archer Martin of the British Columbia Appeal Court, who is retiring next month. A banquet in his honor will be held here May 3 and all justices and judges of the Appeal, Supreme and County Courts of the province will be invited.

TRUE TO TYPE

Mrs. Smith was relating her grievances over the garden fence.

"My husband is such a flirt," she complained, "I just can't trust him anywhere."

"Never mind, my dear," her friend consoled her. "He's probably only reverting to type."

"That's where you're wrong," said Mrs. Smith grimly. "He's reverting to typists."

ST. GEORGE FOR ENGLAND

This is an anniversary of proud and inspiring remembrance for the people of England wherever they may be. It is a day that, both in legend and in history, has made tradition, and keeps on making it. On this day it was that St. George was put to death because of his championship of persecuted Christianity. It marks, too, the triumph of the greatest of the old Crusades, when Richard of the Lion Heart, leading his soldiers with the battle cry of "St. George for England," humbled the power of Saladin on the plains of Palestine. The same battle cry was raised in the assault on Zeebrugge in the Great War, a daring adventure of another April 23. History records how it was on this day that Edward III held a great tournament at Windsor and instituted the Order of St. George, later to become the Order of the Garter. It is the day when Shakespeare, of myriad-tongued eloquence, was born and the day on which he died.

Englishmen may well celebrate today when they recall for what the traditions stand, and the spirit and the heart of the people who sustain them. In their proud tower of memory will stand out, as well, the varied crises through which they have passed—the Spanish Armada, the menace of Louis XVI, the genius of Napoleon when he dominated and terrified continental Europe, the more than four-year-long threat of Prussianism under the Kaiser Wilhelm. From whatever threatened they emerged triumphant, and today they can look back across the bridge of centuries and say once more, in perhaps the greatest crisis of all with which they have been confronted—"Nought shall make us rue, if England to itself do rest but true."

In the Great War 4,921,000 Englishmen in England alone answered the call to arms. Many thousands of others from overseas were in the Navy, the Army and the Air Force of the Empire. Today, in another Great War, over 2,000,000 Englishmen have flocked to the colors, and the country of their birth has set herself to the performance of a task that already foreshadows the use of an even greater man power than that which was employed in 1914-1918. The same invincible spirit, the same will to victory as in the days of the Armada and of Napoleon, survive; there is the same fundamental stability of character in that race which once again has answered the challenge from the powers of Evil seeking to dethrone Christianity. As so often in her history, England is again in the van in contributing inspiration and enlightenment to the world in her willingness to suffer and endure so that mankind itself may enjoy security by being freed from the menace of aggression.

Small wonder is it that people of this race delight in honoring this day of glorious memories, the symbolic date of a nation's greatness, interwoven with traditions that will never die. There is no other country that can couple with its National Day the name of Shakespeare, of whom another Englishman wrote: "Shakespeare made his own the bleak uplands of England, as well as her fields of waving corn. He was as easily at home in the Cotswold hills as in the Cotswold vales. All the ancient sports of England yelded him their secret. He spoke to the hunter as a hunter, to the wrestler or the bull-baiter as one of his own mystery. And knowing England, how could he refrain from loving her? Though the word 'patriot' was not of his speech, he may be said to have engrossed the virtues which the word connotes. With a constant heart and a poet's voice he praises his England, and, speaking with the clear tongue of eloquence across the centuries, he bids us be of good cheer today, and remember that no sacrifice can be too great for the defence of 'this demi-paradise, 'this dear, dear land'."

THE PUBLIC PAYS

Recent figures given by the various returning officers across Canada show that the taking of a general poll under the multiple polling division system is a somewhat costly business. The rent of individual homes at $1c a day, and remuneration for staffs running into the hundreds soon mount up. Some, but not all, of these costs were inescapable under the old system of voting by wards.

In Victoria, for instance, Dominion electoral officers in March rented 134 premises for the places of polling, three premises having multiple boxes at a slightly reduced rate. At each polling place a deputy returning officer was required, at $7 a day. For each box there was a poll clerk, at $4 a day. Poll notices had to be reduplicated. Prior to the election the existing Federal voters' list was canceled, and a new one ordered. The compilation required 268 enumerators in Victoria, receiving 7 cents a name, for a total voters' list of 35,000 names.

Under the former method, Victoria voted in five wards, in premises usually already owned by the Crown. The subsisting Provincial voters' list was generally accepted, with whatever revision had taken place in it from month to month. Polling staffs were fewer in number, if anything, because the work was condensed. The final results were known sooner, and the machinery of voting took place directly under the eyes of the Press.

It may be argued that multiple polling divisions are more convenient to the public; but even so, some 8,500 people in this city did not vote. Against that there remains the fact that the "neighborhood" system has helped to destroy much of the secrecy of the ballot; and Administrations in power become the dispensers of considerable largesse at election time. In the long run the public pays.

APPRECIATED LINK

Increase in scheduled air crossings to Vancouver to three round trips a day between Victoria and the Mainland serves to emphasize the extent to which air travel has become a definite part of the community. Even at three trips a day, bookings are reported as continuous and all plane seats full. As time goes on, the air trip north along the Saanich Peninsula and over the double chain of tree-clad islands in the Strait of Georgia will come to be recognized as one of the most colorful and scenic in the Pacific Northwest. The blue waters, the grandeur of the snow-clad Olympic range of mountains to the south, and the emerald green islands in British Columbia's own archipelago combine to make the passage a memorable experience.

Linking as it does with the Trans-Canada Air Lines service at Vancouver, the western terminus of transcontinental planes and also the end of a shuttle air service to Seattle, the Esquimalt-Vancouver route has proved its worth from a business standpoint many times over. Consistently careful operations, moreover, have instilled confidence in the mind of the public in this still new medium of travel.

Apart from its utility, much still remains to be dohe to point out the attractions of flying from a recreational and scenic standpoint. Nothing that may be seen on the ground quite compares with the birdseye view that is given to those who fly amid such surroundings. The air crossing is infinitely beautiful, a fact which might well be given more prominence in the list of British Columbia's scenic attractions.

EIGHTY YEARS OLD

One of Victoria's outstanding citizens, Mr. C. A. Magrath, celebrated his eightieth birthday yesterday. The passing of this milestone by one who holds such an honored place in Canadian life is a reminder of the staunch and reliable characteristics possessed b, Mr. Magrath, and of the services he has rendered his country. Broad in his sympathies and wide in his outlook on men and affairs he has often expended his energies and concentrated his activities on matters of high moment to Canada's welfare. Mr. Magrath is known to Victorians as a personality embodying graciousness, courtesy, tact, and a fund of knowledge relating to the Dominion's growth and development. He bears his years remarkably well, and his legion of friends and admirers will hope that he will be spared for a long time to carry on as he would wish, and to enjoy, as well, those memories of the part which he was privileged to play in the Canada he loves so well.

Three years ago State Secretary Bache of the Reich Food Ministry was engaged on the task of reducing the number of swine in Germany because they consume ten times as much calories as they produce. Today Herr Bache boasts that his country has 24,830,000 swine, and that thus the supply of meat is assured for 1940. The war programme in Germany is to have all the pigs she can. One reason for this is that she wants pig leather. For the past twenty-five years she has had to import half of all her skins and hides. That import trade is cut off, and so Germany this year is to use the skins of 2,000,000 pigs for leather, not for sausages as in the past. She must go short on sausages in order to provide boots for her soldiers.

SPIRITUAL DESPOTISM

The freemen of antiquity might repeat with generous enthusiasm the sentence of Homer, "that on the first day of his servitude the captive is deprived of one half of his manly virtue." But the poet had only seen the effects of civil or domestic slavery, nor could he foretell that the second moiety of manhood must be annihilated by the spiritual despotism, which shackles not only the actions but even the thoughts of the prostrate votary.—Gibbon.

He lives long who lives well; and time misspent is not lived, but lost.—Fuller.

Note and Comment

By SANDHAM GRAVES

Of two inventions which have remade the face of the world, printing, the more explosive, is celebrating this year the five hundredth anniversary of its arrival in Western Europe. Gunpowder, the other invention, is also celebrating something or other. But let us follow printing. You cannot move your eyes very far from this paper without encountering printing again: the medium of schooling, business and general human intercourse, and to such an extent that civilization as we know it would collapse without the art.

Like gunpowder, printing was in use in Asia long before the Western world learned it, or discovered the principle independently. Printing from fixed blocks was known in Japan in the eighth century, in China in the ninth, and perhaps a great deal earlier. Printing from movable type, the parent of today's letter press, has been traced to China in the eleventh century; but its use in Western Europe is not known until about 1440, almost midway in the fifteenth century. On the other hand, gunpowder was well known in warfare in the fourteenth century, and in Asia many hundreds of years before that.

In somewhat blinding contrast to today's manifestations, printing as we know it was developed in Mainz and Cologne, Germany, and its use there by Johann Gutenberg and associates was addressed at first to the dissemination of peace on earth and goodwill among men. Among the first serious efforts was the printing of the Bible by Gutenberg in 1456 (the Mazarin Bible), a psalter, and other religious works. The printers sought to disguise something of the nature of their triumph through illuminating their pages by hand, after the fashion of manual books of that day. There is, of course, dispute as to who was first in the field, but that is unimportant today.

It is a more sober reflection that the five hundredth anniversary of printing finds the Western world in the parlous condition where printing is used as often to serve ill will as good will; to disseminate falsehood as much as truth; to destroy learning as well as to promote it; to spread licentiousness as well as sobriety; and, generally, to serve the black moods of mankind fully as often as those better qualities of which all men are capable. Indeed, man has molded printing so closely to his nature that it exhibits all of his characteristics, both good and bad. By comparison, gunpowder has been well-nigh impotent for all of its noisy outburst.

What we are looking at, however, is the misuse of men's inventions, rather than any defect in the inventions themselves. Printing has conferred very great favors on the world. Man's advance from the neolithic forms of life to his present day perception of physical ingenuity and comfort has been speeded beyond any means of comparison. If his advance from the neolithic stage of the mind lags somewhat, it is man, and not printing, that is to blame. It is plain irony that Germany, responsible for the first intensive use of the printing art, should today be burning books in the petulant expression of a blind tyranny handed down from the middle ages.

At the moment it could be said that Germany is relying upon gunpowder, rather than printing. It is a mistaken reliance. A shot fired comes to the end of its trajectory and stops there. A truth thrown into the widening pool of time travels on forever. In the long run, printing will be found the more powerful of the two great inventions of the middle ages; once its tremendous force has been controlled and directed into channels that will safely and sanely serve man. If the counterpart of the Mazarin Bible is no longer printed in the shops of Mainz, it will be printed in its cellars and have the greater circulation for that. Thought cannot be enslaved. The mind is free.

In the future lies the cohesive force of printing, the ability to draw all men together for the sensible discharge of their common responsibilities. In the future lies the universality of language, wherein understanding will drive misunderstanding into the limbo of discarded things. In the future lies un-named, undreamt of triumphs of which the human mind is capable; and self-destruction is not one of them. When Johann Gutenberg, as the story goes, noticed stains on a handkerchief in which he had wrapped up the letters of the alphabet, cut from birch bark to amuse his children on an outing, he rediscovered one of the momentous forces of all time. That was only five hundred years ago. Give man time.

However, double-dyed villains are the most colorful lovers.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of April 23, 1890)

Contract Awarded—Messrs. Woodward & Mundy were yesterday morning notified that their tender of $6,300 for the alterations and improvements to the Pandora Avenue Presbyterian church and schoolroom had been accepted by the trustee board. The accommodation is now very much taxed, and the trustees hope to have the work of enlarging the building completed in the least possible time.

New Steamer—W. Jackson, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Puget Sound and Alaska Steamboat Company, and son of Capt. D. B. Jackson, was a passenger to Victoria by the City of Kingston last evening. In speaking to a representative of The Colonist, he said that his father was now in the East, where he would remain for about three weeks, to look after the fitting up of the company's new steamer, which will be launched about July 1, and which is expected to be put on the Victoria-Tacoma route about November 1.

Athletic Club—The shareholders of the James Bay Athletic Club met in the Board of Trade rooms last evening and transacted their business. It was decided to hold the annual meeting next Saturday, when election of officers will take place. Good progress was reported in the building of the new clubrooms.

CURRENCY FROM CANADA REFUSED

Montana Glacier National Park Will Not Make Exchange Owing To Variable Rate

Henceforward, Canadian currency and coin will not be accepted at the entrance stations to the Montana Glacier National Park, according to a letter received by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau from the superintendent of the park yesterday.

The reason given for the banning of Canadian money is the "recent variable exchange rate established by the banks of the United States relative to the value of the Canadian dollar." The superintendent suggests that Dominion residents should be able to make the necessary exchange at Canadian banks before visiting the park, "thereby assisting us considerably and also elliminating any possible misunderstandings."

Glancing Over Sport

Do you know that Chuck Fenske, the greatest miler on the board and cinder tracks today, the lad who has definitely dethroned Glen Cunningham, hits the scales at only 145 pounds, despite the fact that he looks much more in his pictures? . . . Now that the Vancouver Maple Leafs, B.C. cage champions, tackle one of the strongest Winnipeg aggregations since the old Toilers machine in the Western Canada finals, some of the Mainland supporters are wondering if their lads are going to get by that round. The Leafs have slowed up, there is little doubt about that, and therefore I will pick the Winnipeg team to stop the Mainlanders in their tracks. One thing about this coming series and that is that the Leafs will be in there fighting to the last whistle. Talking about the Toilers, it was in March of 1933 that their club met with an airplane disaster when returning from Tulsa. The plane collapsed and two of their club, Mike Shea and Joe Dodds, were killed and the rest so badly injured that they could not continue their bid for the national title. It was the saddest story ever written in the annals of Canadian sport . . . How times change! Back in 1934 Dave Kerr was goal tending for the Montreal Maroons in the hockey circuit. This season he turned out to be the finest net minder in the National League . . . Another prediction right here: Seattle will win the Coast League ball flag again.—J.D.

Webster Should Know

Not long ago the British Admiralty offered for sale several cases of weasands seized by contraband control vessels. Since that time a controversy has been raging about the meaning of the word weasand. Webster defines a weasand as a windpipe, quoting from Shakespeare, "Cut his weasand with thy knife" . . . Clem, the Fort Street poet, was telling his daughter that he had been to visit a lawyer friend who needed an acoustic device to hear properly, when the child piped up, "Daddy, if the lawyer can't hear a case in court, how can they give him a hearing?" . . . In modern gardening we have homones to promote root growth and vitamins to check root shock in transplanting. Some day an experimenter will extract from weeds some marvellous substance that causes a dandelion to push its head up two feet through barren soil, and we shall be able to apply it to useful plants . . . Wee Jock spotted a lovely damsel when he gazed out of the office window instead of attending to his manifold duties. "She has a face that leaves my eyes out of breath," he babbled . . . A young man from our street attended a large birthday party at which he knew few of the guests. While dancing with a pretty girl, he noticed a dowager sitting near the radio set. "What a face on that old girl!" he remarked to his partner. "Do you know who she is," the girl coily remarked. "No, I don't," he replied. "Well, she is my mother," the girl snorted. "Do you know who I am?" the lad asked. "I do not," the girl snapped. "Thank goodness. I'm going home," the boy gasped.—G.B.

ICELAND

Sir,—In view of the prominence now given to Iceland in the news, the following island land areas may prove interesting to your readers: Iceland, 40,500 square miles; Ireland, 32,600; Newfoundland, 42,750; Vancouver Island, 20,000. Incidentally the Faroe Islands have an area of 515 square miles and a population of 24,200. The figures are from Whitaker's Almanack. I believe it was Disraeli or Salisbury that said: "War was one of the greatest teachers of geography," and I think we all agree.

THE SPAN OF LIFE

Sir,—The charming editorial in today's Colonist was surely written by some immature chicken of thirty, to whom sixty looms ahead as the gate of the grave!

Apart from the well-known fact that more than half the world's most famous achievements—books, pictures, music, statuary, invention—were created after the authors had passed that fictitious deadline, it is a profound mistake to assume that time has laws—it only has opinions and customs, which depend for their adoption entirely on the mentality of the individual. Years, days, are arbitrary lines drawn across the scroll of eternity to afford humanity some rough kind of common denominator for working out joint problems of temporal necessity; they have no ultimate divine authority, no permanent validity, and no more power than our own thoughts give them.

Oliver Wendell Holmes closes a poem thus:

"At sixty-two is life begun,
At seventy-three begin once more.
Fly swiftly as thou near'st the sun,
And brighter shine at eighty-four.
At ninety-five thou mayst arrive,
Still wait on God, and work, and thrive."

To which I take the unpardonable liberty of adding,

And not until a hundred and six,
Order Charon to cross the Styx!

SOOKE

Sir,—Many visitors who come to East Sooke ask me the meaning of the name. Sad to say I have not the faintest notion, but a friend of mine from Winnipeg Beach sent me a cutting from a paper which states the meaning of the word as "hell." Well, I know there are the Devil's Potholes at West Sooke and wonder if there is any connection. It might make an interesting article for your Magazine Section if information could be discovered. If it does mean "hell" I am perfectly happy.

Japanese Donate To British Fund

SINGAPORE, April 22 (CP-Reuter's).—A big Japanese rubber plantation in the State of Johore today donated £1,200 ($5,300) to a patriotic fund being raised in Malaya for British defence. The firm is the Showa Rubber Company, one of the most important in Southern Malaya.

"I believe," the manager said, "that we owe a debt of gratitude to Britain for being permitted to carry on business under her protection." He said the firm's central management in Tokio "heartily approved" his action.

HE SCOOPS THEM UP

BELLA COOLA, B.C., April 22 (CP).—Johnny Cole is still talking about the fish he caught which didn't get away. It was a nine-inch rainbow trout which he accidentally scooped up from a stream in a pail one night. Johnny didn't know about his catch until he carried it into a lighted room.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt Drydock at any tide, add 20 feet to the height of high water as above given.

CONTROLLING ALL CARGOES

Committee Established at New York to Handle Danish Shipping

Danish consulates on the Pacific Coast have received the following advices from the Danish Minister at Washington: "Danish Commercial Committee, established at 96 Wall Street, New York. Under my authority it is taking charge of all Danish Government and private cargoes. Please inform Danish ships and other interested parties and ask them to report to the committee."

SEEKING SHIPS

Negotiations are on for the purchase of the steamers Ruth Alexander and President Johnson. Canadians are making the offer, according to reports.

STEAMER REFLOATED

Tugs pulled the combination carrier City of Los Angeles off the mud in Yokohama Harbor over the week-end. The ship will continue to Manila just as soon as her discharged cargo is restowed. The City of Los Angeles was homebound from Penang when she went ashore. She had to discharge quite a bit of cargo onto barges before the tugs could get her to navigable waters.

TAKING TRIP NORTH

Tomorrow W. M. Neal, vice-president in charge of Canadian Pacific western lines, who has been visiting Victoria, will leave for Northern British Columbia aboard the Ss. Princess Adelaide. Mr. Neal will be accompanied by Captain R. W. McMurray, manager of the B.C. Coast Service.

DAMAGED PROPELLER

After striking a floating log while on her way from Vancouver to Nanaimo on Sunday last, the B.C. Coast Service Ss. Princess Elaine will be out of commission temporarily. The Elaine is due here today for drydocking, when repairs will be made to her propeller. The Ss. Princess Victoria will take the Elaine's run across the Strait of Georgia while the latter ship is in drydock.

VISITORS HERE

P. H. McClelland, general passenger agent of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, with headquarters at Seattle, and W. H. Hayden, solicitor for the steamship company, were visitors to Victoria yesterday. Here on business, they spent the greater part of the day in company with Harry Douglas, agent for the line here.

DANISH VESSELS

The British consulate general's office in San Francisco has announced action of the British Government governing Danish shipments following the German occupation of Denmark. The statement reads:

"In view of the fact that Denmark is under German occupation and control, the following steps are being taken with regard to all Danish territory, other than Greenland, Iceland and the Faroe Islands:

"(a) All contraband goods consigned to or destined for Denmark will be detained and seized. (b) All exports of Danish origin or ownership will be detained under the Reprisals Order. (c) All applications of Navicerts covering goods consigned to Danish destinations will be refused. All Navicerts granted for consignments to Denmark, which have not yet reached their destination, are canceled."

DEMONSTRATES FLYING DEVICE

Invention Will Enable Bombers to Reach Objective In Foggy Weather

DAYTON, Ohio, April 22 (AP).—A device designed to make possible mass bombing raids under weather conditions which screen planes from both anti-aircraft fire and enemy pursuit pilots was demonstrated today before Allied military experts.

Developed by William P. Lear, thirty-eight-year-old radio engineer, it is intended to enable planes flying completely "blind" to reach targets such as military airports, manufacturing areas and railheads, and drop bombs through clouds of fog.

Lear, internationally known as an inventor, supplies radio equipment to several foreign Governments and to domestic air lines.

Essentially, his device is only a radio set with a pointer on a dial which shows from what direction radio signals are received, and a second indicator which is "tied" to the North Pole.

Fish Processing Enterprise to Be Privately Owned

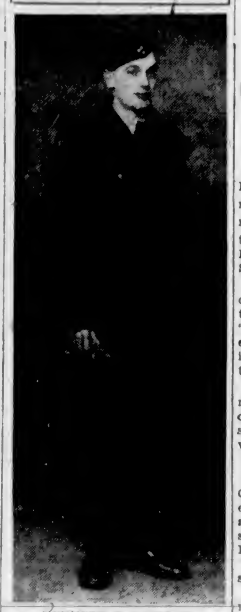

HALIFAX, April 22 (CP).—Establishment of a fish processing plant on the New Brunswick shore of the Bay of Fundy would be "purely a private enterprise," Dr. D. B. Finn, Ottawa, deputy minister of fisheries, said today.

He was commenting on an announcement in Winnipeg, Saturday, by Major Hugh A. Green, Montreal, member of the Dominion Wartime Fishery Advisory Board, that such a plant would be established to supply 5,000,000 pounds of Canadian fish each week for British and French armies.

"ARF A MO" TO ENTERTAIN MEN

The Army and Navy Veterans' "Arf a Mo" concert party will journey to one of the outlying fortifications tomorrow night to entertain the officers and soldiers stationed there. Members of the party are asked to meet at the Army and Navy clubrooms at 7:15 o'clock, where a bus will be waiting to drive them to the forts.

Victorian Worked His Way to England

KENNETH F. DAWSON

SON of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Dawson, 1825 Haultain Street, is at present undergoing training at a Royal Air Force training centre somewhere in England. He is studying aircraftsmanship. Captain H. Seymour-Bigg assisted young Dawson to get a berth on the freighter and gave him letters of introduction to the proper authorities on the other side of the Atlantic. Writing to his parents, he tells of his studies and parades. "The barking commands of the sergeant-majors took some time getting used to, but on the whole we are treated very well," he concludes.

UNDERWRITERS ADVANCE RATES

Cargoes for Mediterranean And Black Sea Ports Will Pay More

LONDON, April 22 (CP).—The Institute of London Underwriters raised war risk insurance rates today ten shillings for each £100—or $2.22 for each $445—of cargo for all ships touching ports in the Mediterranean or Black Sea. The new schedule will go into effect tomorrow.

This rise is equivalent to one-half of 1 per cent of the value of a shipment. The rate previously was 4 per cent. It now becomes 4 1-2 per cent.

The new rate between the Americas and the Mediterranean and Black Sea was set at forty shillings for £100 under the Allied flag, and thirty shillings under a neutral flag.

(These rates are equivalent to 2 per cent and 1 1-2 per cent, respectively.)

FAR EAST IS DANGER SPOT

Naval Expert Sees Possibility Of Conflict Between U.S. and Japan

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP).—Rear Admiral Joseph Taussig, former United States assistant chief of naval operations, said today that the trend of developments in the Far East might easily force the United States into war against Japan.

Asserting that he was expressing only his own viewpoint, Taussig told the Senate naval committee that "we would be warranted in using economic and financial means and, if necessary, using force, to preserve the integrity of China."

Japan's promises in international relations "are worthless," the officer declared, adding that "Japan is seeking to impose her culture on the world by force."

LACKS ESSENTIALS

He said that even if she conquered China, Japan would still lack such essential raw materials as oil, rubber and tin, and that she thus might seek to expand "in The Netherlands Indies and the Philippines."

Testifying on the naval bill, Taussig continued:

"The Far Eastern situation definitely threatens our national interest. We need a stable, independent China. I don't see how we can escape being forced into an eventual war by the present trend of developments in the Far East."

But, Taussig asserted, "we should not be placed in the position of having to carry on a single-handed war against Japan." He suggested that Great Britain, France and The Netherlands should give assistance. He added:

"It should be a naval war. We can't invade Japan and Japan can't invade the United States. But Japan would try to invade the Philippines."

Taussig suggested construction of an "impregnable" naval base in the Philippines and continued building of battleships. He said that agreements might be made with the British, French and Dutch by which American naval vessels could use their bases in the Pacific.

NOT EFFECTIVE

Major George Fielding Eliot, military writer, expressed the opinion that an alliance in the Pacific with Britain and The Netherlands would not be effective, because those countries did not now have freedom of action.

Instead, Eliot suggested that an agreement with Australia might be worth while. If the United States had the support of Australian bases and loaned some money to improve them, he said, it might be in a better position in the Pacific.

APPROVE SCHOOL BY-LAW

CLOVERDALE, B.C., April 22 (CP).—Ratepayers in the municipality of Surrey approved a $102,000 school by-law on Saturday, providing for construction of two junior-senior high schools and an elementary school in the district. Remodeling of the high school here is also provided under the by-law, which was approved by a vote of 1,552 for and 483 against.

TRIP DELAYED MOMENTARILY

Repairs to Reduction Gear Interrupts Progress of Ark Northward

TACOMA, Wash., April 22 (AP).—A bare eight miles from the scene of his triumphant sailing yesterday, Paul Satko, self-styled modern Christopher Columbus, tinkered with his home-made boat, The Ark, tonight, his trip to Cook Inlet, Alaska, momentarily delayed.

Satko, who left here yesterday with $30 in his pocket and hope in his heart, anchored The Ark on the south side of Maury Island last night. The crude craft remained there throughout today while Satko and his two eldest sons attempted to improve on a rubber-core reduction gear which transmits power from The Ark's 1926 automobile motor to the propeller.

Because the rubber becomes hot and softens when The Ark chugs along at five miles an hour, Satko may put in a metal reduction gear. The Foss Tug Company reported Satko might proceed to Eagle Harbor, near Bremerton, to make the necessary repairs.

Accompanying the forty-nine-year-old unemployed Richmond, Va., welder and his wife are the couple's seven youngest children.

The only people nowadays who wake up to find themselves rich are prize fighters.

LAKE SHIPS MOVE AGAIN

Six-Day Freighter Tie-Up Cost Men and Employers Around $100,000

TORONTO, April 22 (CP).—Canada's rich products of mine, field and forest were moving again today through the great inland waterway, truce having been reached in the Great Lakes seamen's strike.

Some 5,000 striking sailors, members of the Canadian Seamen's Union, were ordered back to their posts Saturday after shipping companies and the union agreed to place their dispute over wages and working conditions in the hands of a Federal conciliation board.

The six-day tie-up, unofficially estimated to have cost men and employers $100,000—held 285 vessels in fourteen Canadian ports at a time vital to Canada's wartime economy. The temporary settlement released boats from every port and, with ice conditions reported clearing in the Upper Lakes, navigation was quickly opened.

Pressmen Work In Flood Water

POMEROY, O., April 22 (AP).—Pressmen waded in eighteen inches of water today so Pomeroy residents could read that the flooded Ohio River stood seven feet deep and was rising in the business-disrupted area.

Employees of The Pomeroy Tribune, surrounded by flood water, slushed through a foot and a half of it in order to bolt plates to the press.

Members of Camosun Lodge No. 60, A.F. & A.M., G.R.B.C., are requested to meet at the Masonic Temple, Fisgard Street, on Tuesday, April 23, at 1.30 p.m. for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late Brother Peter Lrail, a member of Portal Lodge No. 84, A.F. & A.M., Portal, North Dakota. Members of local lodges and sojourning brethren are invited to attend.

While the official opening of the Sunset Inn will not be until May 1, the comfortable lodge or annex is in use and a number of guests are enjoying the first rate accommodation and the lovely location.

THREAT LESS IN ALBERTA

sleet blizzard during the week-end.

Fifty families were still homeless in the Red Deer Valley, in North Edmonton and in the Whitecourt area 135 miles northwest of Edmonton, where Spring floods have invaded their homes.

While road traffic in virtually every section of the province was at a standstill due to mud, snow, slush and water, trains remained little affected. Telephonic communication was restored and all towns "blacked out" Sunday evening by power loss through power lines collapsing were again with lights. Many rural telephone circuits were still out of action.

CANADIANS AND FRENCH ATTACK

two other Norwegian fronts, near Narvik in the Far North and the Lillehammer-Elverum sector north of Oslo.

In Narvik the few thousand Germans landed there in their "Trojan horse" attack on April 9 have been isolated by Allied columns from Tromsoe in the North and the Lofoten Islands to the South. Norwegian authorities have broadcast a warning to all civilians to leave the ore-loading port without delay.

An Allied offensive, together with a naval bombardment of the town, was believed impending.

BOTH CLAIM LILLEHEMMER

Few details were available here concerning the southern front, but it was known definitely that the Allied forces are moving southward down the Glommen River Valley, midway between Oslo and Trondhjem. The Allied-ontrolled radio station at Bodoe and the German-controlled station at Oslo both announced tonight that their troops were occupying Lillehammer, northwest of Hamar.

In view of the conflicting claims, it was presumed here that the fighting now under way for control of the towns was indecisive. It was pointed out, however, that the German commander in the Lillehammer zone will be unable to receive any reinforcements and will have to capitulate in the near future.

Norwegian authorities said the effective Allied air attacks on the German-held airport at Stavanger and Aalborg, Denmark, have halted all traffic on the German air ferry bringing troops and supplies into Norway.

FIGHTING AT STIKLESTAD

LONDON, April 23 (CP).—A Reuter's News Agency dispatch from Norway said today that fierce fighting now is in progress at Stiklestad, north of Trondhjem, between British and German forces.

The dispatch said Reuter's correspondent had learned that German destroyers from Trondhjem landed troops north of that port with the object of attacking the British troops in the rear. The Britons drove them off, the dispatch said.

ASKS SUPPORT FOR Y.M.C.A.

J. B. Clearihue, K.C., Addresses Junior Chamber Of Commerce

An appeal for support for the Y.M.C.A. war fund campaign was made by J. B. Clearihue, K.C., last night at a dinner meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, held in the Douglas Hotel.

Mr. Clearihue outlined the nature of the work undertaken by the Y.M.C.A., both in Canada and overseas, and described the various services and activities provided for the men of the Canadian Active Service Force. From personal experience in the last war, he told of the benefits the Y.M.C.A. is able to give to men in the trenches, and urged the junior chamber to get behind the local drive.

Pointing to the problem of rehabilitation that will arise when the troops return after the war, he suggested that there was an opportunity for members to give study to this question now, and be in a position to take a leading part in solving the difficulty when it arises.

Dinner guests introduced by President Tom Sturgess included three students of Victoria High School, Donald Sceats, George Baxter and Kenneth Wills, and O. B. Pritchard, a former Victorian, now second vice-president of the Vancouver Junior Board of Trade. Mr. Pritchard spoke briefly in bringing the greetings of the Vancouver organization, and Mr. Wills thanked the members on behalf of the students, for their invitation to the dinner meeting.

Much interest was taken in a letter from the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, asking for names of any present or past members who are now on active service overseas, in order that the British Junior Chamber may extend hospitality to them.

It was decided that no floral window decoration contest would be sponsored this year, but consideration will be given next year to combining the Christmas and Spring contests in a monster Easter parade contest. A suggestion that the chamber keep in mind the organization of a junior chamber in Saanich was noted for consideration.

E. H. Harris reported progress on the arena campaign, and stated that the amount received to date was $33,495. He intimated that the Saskatchewan Association had offered to stage a dance on May 6 in the A.O.F. Hall in aid of the campaign, the entire proceeds to go towards the arena. If successful, the dance will be repeated for the same purpose.

An amusing quiz programme on Victoria and Vancouver Island was conducted by Peter Bell, appropriately equipped with mortar-board, the winners being E. H. Harris, O. B. Pritchard and T. E. Watkins. Fred Arnot led the community singing at the piano.

GIVES SUMMARY OF NAVAL LOSS

has not lost a single cruiser. Her other losses are ten destroyers of the pre-war fleet of 185.

British sources said tonight that, even if Germany had not lost a ton since the beginning of the war, Britain's sea preponderance would be unaffected by her losses. Furthermore, while Germany has been suffering her losses, mainly in northern waters, Britain's warship building programme has forged steadily ahead and her fleet is increasing.

GERMAN LOSSES

German casualties include both her battleships, two of her three pocket battleships, both her heavy cruisers, all six six-inch gun cruisers with which she started the war, and twelve surface torpedo craft.

The Scharnhorst was damaged by H.M.S. Renown and the Gneisenau was reported sunk at Oslo. Both were recently-built ships of 26,000 tons. The Admiral Grap Spee, first pocket battleship to go, was scuttled at Montevideo. The Admiral Scheer was struck by a torpedo.

Germany has admitted the loss of the heavy cruiser Bluecher, 10,000 tons. Another cruiser was torpedoed in December.

LOSS ADMITTED

The Nazis admit also loss of the Karlsruhe, 6,000-ton cruiser, also carrier of six-inch guns. Another six-inch carrier was hit by a torpedo in December and still another was sunk.

British aircraft sank a six-incher at Bergen, and hit another with a heavy bomb. The remaining six-incher, the Emden, 5,400 tons, was reported sunk by Norwegian shore batteries.

Germany had forty-five surface torpedo craft at the start of the war of which only twenty-two were modern destroyers. The German High Command admitted in March that two destroyers had been lost. Eight modern destroyers were lost at Narvik, one was bombed at Trondhjem on April 4, and another was hit probably during the same raid.

A BIG DENT

Allied action has made a big dent in the fleet of seventy submarines with which the Nazis started the war so that she no longer finds it possible to maintain considerable U-boat activity.

(Unofficial estimates of U-boat sinkings by the Allies have ranged as high as sixty.)

But naval sources point out today's statement is not the whole story. Since Hitler invaded Norway twenty-six transports and supply ships have been sunk or scuttled. Ten others were hit by torpedoes and probably sunk. One was set on fire during an air attack and four German vessels were captured.

BRIGADE TO HOLD REUNION MEETING

Preliminary arrangements are now being made by a committee, under the chairmanship of E. H. "Ted" King, for a reunion of members of the 15th Brigade, Canadian Field Artillery, to be held in Spencer's dining-room on Saturday, May 18. A meeting to make final plans for the programme will be held at the home of the president of the group, Mr. King, 1401 Craigdarroch Road, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The 15th Brigade left here under the command of the late Lieut.-Col. A. T. Ogilvie and had members serving in many units in France. Most of the men went into the 14th Brigade when reorganization was carried out at Whitley, England.

All members of the association on Vancouver Island and the Mainland are being notified by the secretary, Ralph Cruickshanks, and a large number are expected to be present at the reunion.

New Models Are Popular

ADD to the cheerful signs of Spring the introduction this week by Nash dealers of three dynamically styled new Nash convertible models. All of the cars seat six people comfortably, three in a full-width auxiliary seat. Shown here, with Anne Gwynne and Helen Parrish, of Universal Pictures, is the big Ambassador Eight convertible, senior member of the line. The two other adventuresome cars in the group are the Nash LaFayette, low priced and economical, and the Nash Ambassador Six. Tops of the convertibles drop down easily into a boot that is streamlined into the contour of the body lines. The cars are offered in eight striking new colors, with upholstery in red, blue or brown leather.

City and District

Measles Cases—Nine cases of measles were reported to the city health office yesterday. Fifty-seven cases were reported last week.

Will Speak Today—George H. Gardiner, postmaster, will speak at the Credit Granters' luncheon today at noon, at Spencer's, on "The Postoffice and Retail Business."

Freak Tulips—Two colored tulips with leaves grown into the flowers forming a distinctive pattern, were picked yesterday from the garden of Harry Kroeger, 1026 Johnson Street.

Beach Fire—A small fire on the beach, below Satellite Road, was put out by the Oak Bay fire department at 8:40 p.m. yesterday. No damage was reported.

Ward Four Liberals—Ward Four Liberals will hold a business meeting at Liberal headquarters, Government Street, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock. All members are urgently requested to attend.

Member-Elect Here—Well known in Victoria, where he was formerly secretary to Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines, James Sinclair, Liberal member-elect for Vancouver North, is visiting the city for the first time since election day.

Tax Sale Lands—Resale of $2,500 worth of Burnaby property forfeited for non-payment of taxes was authorized by the Provincial Government yesterday, on the recommendation of the commissioner for the area.

May Queen Crowning—The Esquimalt Council last night received an invitation from the Esquimalt Community Club, inviting the members to attend the crowning of the May Queen on the afternoon of May 1, at 2:30 o'clock, in Bullen Park.

Office Entered—Entry was gained to the office of Burns & Wainwright, Ltd., at 620 View Street, by a thief who forced open the main door during the week-end. Although the premises had been thoroughly ransacked, nothing was reported missing.

Nothing Taken—A thief forced open a door leading to the office of George I. Warren at the Chamber of Commerce quarters during the week-end. Detective P. W. Richards found that nothing had been stolen, although furniture had been ransacked.

Boat Stolen—T. W. Shaffer, 925 Caledonia Avenue, reported to police on Sunday that a twelve-foot dory without oars had been stolen from the Outer Harbor. Two boys were seen paddling the craft under the Johnson Street Bridge in the afternoon.

Publicity in Orient—A recent issue of The Shanghai Times carried in its pictorial section a full page devoted to pictures of Victoria and Mr. Butchart's Gardens. This publicity for the Island was obtained through efforts of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

Ward Seven Ratepayers—Councillor E. C. Warren gave an illustrated talk on Saanich's proposed new water system at a recent meeting of Ward Seven Ratepayers. Councillor Leslie H. Plessmore and Trustee R. G. Shanks were other speakers. A discussion on electrical inspection in the municipality also took place.

Street Signs—Street signs in Esquimalt are badly in need of painting, repairing and some of them renewing, Chief H. W. V. Pecknold reported at last night's council meeting. The matter was referred to the foreman of works to investigate and report back to the council.

Man Assaulted—Percy Brooks, 627 Princess Avenue, reported to police early Sunday morning that he had been nearly knocked down by a motorist at Blanshard and Flagard Streets. He shouted at the man, who then stepped out of his car and struck Brooks on the face. He escaped when Brooks gave chase.

Lantern Lecture Given—A lantern lecture was given on Saturday evening by Douglas Flintoft at the Growers' Wine Company, Lake Hill, sponsored by the Saanich Home-workshop Club. After the pictures, members of the club and their friends were taken over the plant and refreshments were served.

New Dwelling—E. J. Merrett secured a $2,975 city building permit yesterday to construct a six-room dwelling at 512 Northcott Avenue for E. E. Stewart. It will measure 27 by 31 feet with a full basement, but no garage, fir and oak floors, stucco exterior walls and a hot-water heating plant.

Pleads Guilty—A man who pleaded guilty in the city police court through Patrick J. Sinnott to a charge of using premises under his control at 1406 Douglas Street for the purposes of recording bets, contrary to the Criminal Code, was fined $50 by Magistrate Henry C. Hall.

Annual Meeting—The annual provincial meeting of the Lord's Day Alliance, British Columbia Branch, will be held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, April 29, at 8. Rt. Rev. W. R. Adams, B.D., Bishop of Kootenay, provincial president, will preside. Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, D.D., will speak.

Appointment Pending—Selection of a police inspector at Kamloops to take the place of Inspector John Shirras, who will become assistant commissioner of the British Columbia Police on June 1, is pending, and may be announced towards the end of this week, it was intimated yesterday at the Legislatie Buildings.

Tax Penalties—On July 1 of this year, the first 5 per cent penalty on current taxes will be levied, and this will be followed by the other 5 per cent on October 1, according to the Annual Percentage Addition By-Law, which was given first and second readings by the Esquimalt Council last night.

Embargo Council—A meeting of the Victoria and District Embargo and Boycott Council will be held in the council's office at Room 2, 1116 Broad Street, commencing at 8 o'clock this evening. This is an important meeting. All who were officially delegated to the council, or who are in any way interested in it are urged to be present.

Justices of the Peace—Eight new justices of the peace were appointed by the Provincial Government yesterday at Vancouver Island points. E. W. Neel, C. W. O'Neill, K. F. Duncan, and H. W. Dickie of Duncan; Albert I. Thomas, Youbou; J. S. Dyke, Crofton; William McD. Cummings, Alice Arm; and S. W. Frost, Surge Narrows, were named.

Endorse Resolution—A resolution from the Henry George Club, asking the Provincial Government to make drastic increases in the rental of timber limits, with a view to probably preserving the province's natural resources, was endorsed by the Esquimalt Council last night over the dissenting votes of Councillors Neil Fraser and Albert Heald.

Makes Comment—"The intersection of Pandora Avenue and Quadra Street is a spot where there is no reason for accidents, except through the carelessness of car drivers," Magistrate Hall commented in the city police court in fining a motorist $20 for driving there in a manner dangerous to the public. Five other drivers were each fined $2.50 for infractions of parking regulations.

Four Charged—Four men appeared in the city police court yesterday on charges of being intoxicated on Johnson Street. The first was sentenced to serve twenty days in jail at hard labor. The second was fined $50, or in default ten days in jail. A remand until today was made in the case of the third, who pleaded not guilty. The fourth was fined $25, or in default five days in jail.

Tribute to Mothers—Attorney-General Wismer will be the featured speaker at a tribute to motherhood to be staged by twenty Vancouver fraternal organizations in a ceremony planned for Brockton Point on May 12, it was announced yesterday. Mayor Lyle Telford, Rev. Andrew Roddan and George S. Hockley, president of the Mainland fraternal council, will also address the gathering.

Actuary Is Here—Revision of the teachers' pension fund in British Columbia, in preparation for legislation to be presented at the Fall session to place the fund on a sounder basis, will proceed now, Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir announced yesterday. S. H. Pipe, Toronto actuary who assisted the Province with revision of other pension schemes, arrived in the city yesterday to act in a consulting capacity, at the request of the Provincial Government. Alternative proposals may be suggested at the session, it was indicated.

Want Dressing Rooms—A delegation from the Esquimalt Football Club, comprising W. Barrett, secretary, and N. Patterson, interviewed the council last night, requesting construction of dressing rooms and installation of public conveniences in Bullen Park. The club had funds, Mr. Barrett said, and was willing to contribute towards the cost. After much discussion it was decided to ask representatives of the Esquimalt Athletic Association to met jointly with the council and football club to see if an amicable conclusion could be reached, for the construction of a building adjoining the Athletic Hall, on Fraser Street.

tary, plans extensive changes on the production side of the Air Ministry. With the object of accelerating the output of aircraft, Sir Charles Craven, one of Great Britain's armament leaders, will assist Air Marshal Sir Wilfrid Freeman, head of the ministry's production department.

Sir Charles was given a full-time job on the Air Council as civil member for development and production. He was given "leave of absence" from his position as chairman of the Vickers group of armament companies.

E. J. H. Lemon, who has been director-general of air production for the last two years, will return to his railroad job but will continue as a member of the Supply Board.

BIG INCREASE ORDERED

Sir Samuel has ordered a big increase in Great Britain's aircraft production, which will mean new factories, new airdromes and more skilled labor at work. The new administrative changes spring from this new programme, which has a production objective higher than anything ever contemplated in this country.

The R.A.F. has doubled its monthly output of trained pilots since the outbreak of war and the flow soon will be three times as great, particularly when the Empire training scheme is in full swing.

Training of pilots, bombers and air crews is not one of the major problems of Sir Samuel's department at the moment because of the steady stream of men which soon will move across the Atlantic from Canada. His biggest problem is aircraft production, which must be speeded up, particularly in view of the war's spread geographically.

STATEMENT ISSUED

The statement announcing the appointments said:

"His Majesty's Government recently have been considering the pressure upon the time and the energy of the chiefs of the staffs: it is clear from recent experience that as the war develops this strain is bound to increase.

"Air warfare alone makes this inevitable and, indeed, the effect of air warfare is to necessitate in greater or lesser degree for all three services a twenty-four-hour shift.

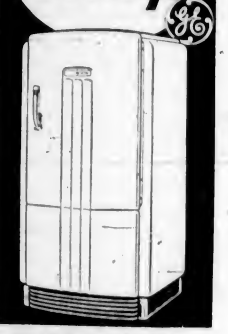

"On the assumption that the strain may be prolonged, it has been thought essential to take steps to relieve it to the greatest possible extent."

Canadian Daughters

Members of the Canadian Daughters' League, Assembly No. 5, held their annual installation ceremony in the Shrine Hall recently, when Mrs. C. Jasper was installed as president for the ensuing year. The provincial first vice-president, Mrs. R. H. McInnes, acted as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. R. Milburn and Mrs. C. E. Stewart. Mrs. Jasper succeeds Mrs. C. Porteous, who retired from office and who was the recipient of a handsome leather handbag and past president's jewel in recognition of her splendid leadership and help at all times. Corsage bouquets were presented to the installing officers and to those who were installed, also to Mrs. A. C. Ross, past provincial president, who thanked the assembly and congratulated the members on their efforts and achievements during the year. The retiring officers, Mrs. McInnes and Mrs. W. A. Craven, received gifts from the assembly. The treasurer's report by Mrs. Bray and the history by Mrs. Kinsey were received and the members were gratified with the account of the year's work. Cash donations were given to the Tuberculous Veterans, the Three Services' Auxiliary, Sunshine Inn, the Red Cross and the Solarium, also to the parting gift from the women of Canada to Lady Tweedsmuir. The members completed over fifty garments for the Solarium, also sent toys at Christmas. Jam and grocer-

W.A. Silver Tea

A silver tea, organized by the Ganges branch of the Women's Auxiliary took place last Friday at the home of Mr. H. W. Bullock, which had been kindly lent by him for the occasion. About twenty-four members and friends were present and all took part in a "quiz" programme, arranged and conducted by Mrs. G. B. Young. The first prize for this contest was won by Mrs. W. Norton, the second by Mrs. H. A. Robinson. Tea, which was under the management of Mrs. C. H. Popham, assisted by Mrs. W. Palmer, was served in the dining-room, which was decorated with primroses, to commemorate Primrose Day, the table and other rooms being also arranged with the same flowers. The sale of some lovely tulips, donated by Mrs. D. Simson, and the sum derived from the tea, cleared $8.50 for Women's Auxiliary funds.

Engagement Is Announced

MISS PATRICIA COLE

The engagement is announced between Sub-Lieut. U.G. (Peter) Huggins R.N.V.R., only son of Major and Mrs. C. G. D. Huggins, Hadlow Down, Sussex, England, and Patricia Macaskie, only daughter of Major and Mrs. Coleridge Cole, Runnymede Avenue, Victoria, late of London, England.

RED CROSS

ESQUIMALT

A general meeting of the Esquimalt Unit of the Red Cross Society will be held in the schoolroom of the United Church, Admirals Road, on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of members is earnestly requested, as matters of importance will be discussed.

Amusing Play Given at Fulford

The Fulford Community Hall was filled to capacity for the recent Fulford Dramatic Society presentation of "Aunt Tilly Goes to Town," a three-act farce by Wilbur Brawn. The play was produced by Mrs. A. Hepburn and organized to raise funds for the South Salt Spring Red Cross Unit, which benefited to the extent of $80 by the performance.

The audience seemed thoroughly to enjoy the amusing situations caused by a series of mishaps which transpired following the inadvertent exchange of a couple of suitcases. As the maid, "Lucinda Talbot," Pearl Grosart was excellent, and received much praise for her capital impersonation.

Thoroughly entering into the spirit of their respective parts, other leading roles were carried out by the following: Connie Heald, Eileen Cearley, Gordon Hartley, Leslie Mollett, Lottie Reynolds, Dorothy Grosart, Dolly Crawford, Lavinia Briggs and Elmer Lee. During the intervals violin solos were rendered by Walter Cudmore. The accompanist was Mrs. A. Hepburn, and an acrobatic display was given by Mr. Gordon Hartley and his boys of Beaver Point School.

At the conclusion of the performance Mrs. Hepburn was presented with two lovely bouquets, after which she made a short speech, thanking all those who had helped with the entertainment. Prior to the dance, which brought the evening to a close, refreshments, all of which had been donated, were served.

Y.P.S. NEWS

YOUTH COUNCIL

The regular meeting of the Victoria and District Youth Council will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Y.M.C.A. There will be a speaker from the Y.M.C.A. war service committee and all youth groups are invited to send representatives. In order to modernize its records, all young people's groups are requested to fill out the registration form now available from the secretary. Among the highlights of the second Provincial Youth Congress held at the Vancouver Normal School last Easter, as reported by Youth Council delegates at the last meeting, was a recommendation that an optional school course in the non-sectarian principles of Christianity be instituted by the Department of Education, after the various denominations had conferred on the subject. The establishment of an economic research committee, organization of a school of political science, a health campaign for a medical building at the University of British Columbia, co-ordinating conference on community centres and boosting the tourist trade were also advocated. At the same meeting the council endorsed the Y.M.C.A. war services campaign. A limited number of congress reports are now available by writing to the secretary, Victoria Youth Council, care of the Y.W.C.A.

BELMONT

The Belmont Young People's Society will hold a concert on Wednesday at 8 p.m. Miss Elaine Ford, elocutionist; Mr. Robin Thomas, violinist; the Messrs. Johnson, instrumental trio, and Mr. Rex Hundleby, accordionist, will be among the assisting artists. The Belmont Players, under Miss Dorothy Davies, will present scenes from "As You Like It," the prize-winning play in the recent provincial drama festival. The cast of the play includes Misses Dorothy Davies, Kathleen Henderson, Helen McLellan, and Messrs Sydney Blaney and Douglas Bailey.

To Hold Concert For Service Men

An excellent programme has been arranged for the concert to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Three Services Canteen, Broad Street, at 8 o'clock. The Ariel Singers, under the direction of Mr. Frank Tupman, and the Beaux-Arts Society have offered their services, and in addition to songs and sketches, there will be other musical numbers. A special invitation is extended to all soldiers, sailors and airmen.

So popular has the canteen become, that it has been found necessary to install two extra beds. A sailor from a visiting British ship was so pleased to find comfortable quarters ashore that last week, when he had a few days' leave, he moved into the canteen and was delighted with the reception given him.

PARTY AT LUXTON

The Luxton Athletic Club sponsored a surprise party held in the Luxton Hall on Saturday evening to honor Mr. William McKay, of Halifax, who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McKay, Luxton. Over 125 friends enjoyed both old-time and modern dances. Mr. J. M. Marshall was master of ceremonies. Refreshments were served, after which Mr. M. A. Morrow, on behalf of those present and of the community, recalled the popularity and sportsmanship of Mr. McKay all through his school life, and wished him good luck and the best wishes of the district; also a safe return when his duties were finished. Before rejoining his ship in Halifax on May 7, Mr. McKay will visit his sister, Miss Dorothy McKay, Vancouver.

Last Twilight Recital to Be Heard Sunday

Good balance and attack was shown in the rendering of the programme by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Choir at the Twilight Recital on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. J. B. Ratcliffe and Miss S. M. Muir sang pleasingly and Mr. Allan Anderson gave a masterly and sympathetic interpretation of "Thais" (Meditation) (Massenet) on the violin.

The programme opened with "O Worship the King" (Nichol) by the choir, with Mrs. Evelyn Ward taking the solos, and "Open Thy Gates," by Julius Harrison. Other choir selections were "Lord, I Have Loved the Habitation of Thy House" (Torrance); "God So Loved the World" (Marks); "Still, Still With Thee" (Councill) with Mrs. Lister, Mrs F. W. Hawes and Messrs. W. Draper and A. W. Trevett singing the solos; "Bow Down Thine Ear" (Arensky); "The Strain Upraise of Joy and Praise" (Sampson), with Miss Margaret Russell as soloist, and "Blessing, Glory, Wisdom and Thanks" (Brewer).

"Hear Thou My Prayer" (Hamblen), was the solo sung by Mrs. Ratcliffe, and "Green Pastures" (Sanderson) was the solo rendered by Miss S. M. Muir. A duet, "Give Thanks and Sing," by Cuthbert Harris, was given by Mrs. F. W. Hawes and Mr. A. W. Trevett. Mr. C. C. Warren was the organist and the choir leader.

The last recital of the season will be given by the choir of St. Aidan's United Church next Sunday.

Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. J. W. Beall, who marked her ninetieth birthday yesterday at her home on Belmont Avenue, celebrated the affair on Saturday with an afternoon arranged by her daughter, Miss Gladys Beall. Many friends also called on Sunday and yesterday to extend best wishes and congratulations. Many flowers, greetings and gifts were received, including flowers from Metropolitan United Church, of which she is a member, and greetings from the W.M.S. and the auxiliaries. Assisting Miss Beall during the tea hour on Saturday was Mrs. G. D. Christie, who poured tea from a table arranged with Spring flowers, pink and white tulips, tapers and small bunches of forget-me-nots tied with tulle. Besides Miss Beall, who lives with her mother, Mrs. Beall has one son, Mr. H. G. Beall, Montreal, who is general secretary of the East End Y.M.C.A. He will be remembered in Victoria as being the first physical director of the Y.M.C.A. in Victoria from 1911 to 1915. Mrs. Beall was born in Staffordshire, England, and came to Canada seventy-five years ago, settling in Eastern Canada, and has lived in Montreal, Kingston, Hamilton and Toronto. She has made her home in Victoria for the past twenty-nine years, and is in excellent health, taking a great interest in the events of the day.

Double Shower for Sisters

Mrs. Marion Mitchell was hostess recently at a surprise double shower held at the home of her aunt, Mrs. G. Hughes, 2723 Mount Stephen Avenue, in honor of two sisters, who are to be married shortly, the Misses Peggy and Freda Peel. Upon arrival, the brides-to-be sat under a trellised arch decorated with white lilac and white bells, and they were presented with corsage bouquets of pink carnations by Miss Marjorie Hughes and Miss Betty Mitchell. Miss Freda Peel, who is to be married in Australia, was asked to launch a boat decorated with lights and laden with good wishes and gifts. Miss Peggy Peel was presented with a large rose-decorated basket filled with many gifts. A buffet supper was served from a table decorated with a lace cloth and centred with silver candelabra in which glowed white and silver candles. Community singing was enjoyed and the evening was brought to a close with "They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne." The invited guests were Mesdames I. Findley, E. Graves, D. Doherty, M. Cameron, M. Crossly, E. Frederick, and Misses P. Peppers, M. Stewart, A. Jackson, P. Hanny, A. Wilson, T. McLean, K. McInnis, T. McConachie, A. Statford, M. Frost, I. Anderson, B. Kneale, M. Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. David Greensides, 1324 Balmoral Road, entertained at a delightful surprise party on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Evelyn Coolidge, who is leaving shortly for her home in Webb, Sask. The evening was spent in games, and just before supper Miss Coolidge was presented with a prettily-decorated traveling case packed with handkerchiefs. Miss Judith Hagen, who is also leaving for Saskatchewan, was presented with a gift. The rooms were decorated with Spring flowers and refreshments were served from a table covered with a lace cloth and centred with a bowl of pink tulips. Mrs. E. S. Ard poured tea and Mrs. Russell Ard presided at the coffee urn. Miss Lenora Trickett assisted in serving. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ard, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ard, Mrs. Harold Bourne, Mrs. Bert Noel, and Misses Dorothy Cronk, Marjorie Bullock, Helen Forsythe, Inez Hagen, Irene Hagen, Kathleen Henderson, Margaret Isbister, Patricia Popey, Olive Popey, Lenora Trickett, Bernice Wigness and Dorrie Wright.

Gifts for Bride-to-Be

Mrs. W. Bowes, Cedar Hill Crossroad, entertained at a shower recently in honor of Miss Hope Sluggett, an April bride-to-be. Upon her arrival she was presented with a lovely corsage bouquet of rosebuds, forget - me - nots and fern. Immediately following Miss Sluggett was again presented with a large white daisy; as each petal was pulled it revealed where a gift was hidden. A cloth of ecru lace covered the tea table centred with a bowl of tulips and narcissus with apple blossoms decorating the reception room. Mrs. Bowes and Mrs. W. Hinchcliffe presided at the tea table, with Mrs. Buckle and Mrs. Creed assisting. Those present were Mesdames Holgate, Buckle, Creed, Stanley, J. B. Rowell, R. W. Sluggett, R. Knott, P. Sluggett, Hope Sluggett, W. Hinchcliffe, Miss B. Atkins and Miss L. Rowland.

Superintendent Here

Miss Elizabeth Smellie, O.B.E., R.R.C., chief superintendent of the Victorian Order of Nurses, arrived yesterday morning by plane from the Mainland and is staying at the Empress Hotel until this afternoon, when she returns to the East. Members of the local V.O.N. staff lunched with her and discussed matters connected with the work of the Order in Canada. At tea time Mrs. George Hall entertained the members of the board at her home on Rockland Avenue, when Miss Smellie told them of the recent meeting of the national board in Ottawa. Last evening Miss Smellie was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Amyot at dinner at their home in Queenswood.

Luncheon for Guests

The Past Matrons and Past Patrons' Association of the Order of Eastern Star entertained yesterday at a luncheon in the private dining-room of David Spencer Ltd., in honor of the worthy grand matron of the order, Mrs. Catherine Irwin, North Vancouver, and the worthy grand patron, Mr. J. V. Beldam, New Westminster, and other grand officers. About fifty guests attended. Silver baskets of bluebells with little blue Cellophane nut baskets as favors were arranged on the tables and dainty place cards were in the form of an old-fashioned lady on a white card, with the star emblem of the order. Miss Alice Findler, president of the association, welcomed the guests and presided over the festivities.

Returns From Old Land

Mr. George R. Naden, formerly deputy minister of lands, has returned to Victoria after a year's visit in England. The great part of this time was spent with his sister, who some years ago visited him here. Miss Naden, who was formerly a nurse, has now retired from that service. Mr. Naden found the "blackouts" in the Old Land a tremendous hindrance to getting about as one would wish. With lights on automobiles focussed on the ground, the danger to pedestrians is very much increased and the greatest care must be exercised by those on foot when moving about after dark.

Clothes for the Modern Grandmother

THE modern grandmother has a streamlined, youthful figure, and dresses as smartly as the debutante. Miss Billie Burke, for instance, is now a grandmother; and when the glad tidings reached her, she celebrated and bought herself some lovely clothes. We are showing you three of her costumes: Centre, a dinner ensemble in cobalt blue and coral pink, the frock in blue crepe with fitted jacket of blue sequins, coral felt hat trimmed with pink ostrich feathers. Right, her evening dress in blue grey chiffon, the low-cut bodice being trimmed with a crystal ornament, full sleeves gathered into crystal wristbands and a diaphanous cape with pearl and crystal collar. Left, we show her Summer frock in white organdie, stitched with rickrack, narrow white ruching trimming frilled collar, wristbands, and edging the picture hat's brim. The hat is banded with navy blue velvet ribbon.

Mt. Newton High School Concert Is Successful

The annual concert of Mount Newton High School was held at the school recently, with a large attendance of parents and pupils present. The concert programme was cleverly presented, and was commented on by Trustee N. Gray as being one of the best concerts staged by the Mount Newton High School for a long time.

The programme was as follows: Girls' choir, "Southern Memories," "Nymphs and Shepherds," "Canadian Boat Song"; folk dances; Mount Newton Moonshiners in "Awfully Good"; play by Dale Sutherland, Pat Gray, Mary Cruse, Joy Squire, Dorothy Chubb, Joanna McIntosh, Edith Wilson, Robert Thompson; girls' choir, "Lass With the Delicate Air," "Drink to Me Only" and "Dream Seller"; Mount Newton Moonshiners in "Worth Mentioning."

NEW HEALTH PLAN IS BEING FORMED

Approved by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of British Columbia and the British Columbia Medical Association, a plan is being established whereby employees of industrial or mercantile organizations may secure for themselves, and their dependents, all services required in the prevention, diagnosis or treatment of illness on a co-operation non-profit prepayment and voluntary basis.

The plan is to be administered by the members and managed by a board of directors, who are to serve without pay. The scheme is to be known as the Medical Services Association, and membership in the association is to be open to employers with ten or more employees; and the employees may be covered for full medical, surgical and hospital care.

The service is to commence when the association has enrolled 6,000 subscribers, and the cost to the employee will be 3½ cents per day; or where the inclusion of hospital care is desired, in addition to surgical, the amount will be 5 cents per day.

The directors, who will serve until the first annual meeting, are A. L. McLellan, J. T. Myers, J.M. W. Thomas and John Young. Headquarters of the association are to be in Vancouver.

Two Norwegian Ships Are Lost

STOCKHOLM, April 22 (AP).—The Norwegian steamship Bravore, 1,458 tons, struck a mine and foundered off the English southeast coast today. Only four of her crew were known to have reached land.

The Swedish fishing cutter "GL144" also struck a mine near her home port of Goteborg, and sank with her crew of six.

YOUR BABY'S FIRST VEGETABLES AND FRUITS FREE BOOK

A valuable contribution to the preparation of baby foods has been made by Homogenized vegetables and fruits. Clinical and laboratory tests show Homogenized foods have been successfully digested by infants as young as six weeks.

The immediate result of these tests is that babies are able to receive the health benefits of the vitamins A, B, C, and G, and the minerals contained in vegetables and fruits at an earlier age than was possible with strained foods.

The first step in this new process of preparing solid foods is a complete straining of vegetables and fruits. The tough fibres that are left after straining are then reduced by special homogenization to a minute, non-irritating form. Food cell walls, left whole after straining, are broken by special homogenization. The enclosed nutriment in a smooth, easily digestible form is fully exposed to babies' delicate digestive system. Thus, digestion takes place easier, and quicker than the digestion of strained foods.

Particularly valuable to mothers is the free booklet explaining the early feeding of homogenized solids entitled "Your Baby's First Vegetables and Fruits." Mothers are requested to send their name and address to Libby's, Chatham, Ontario, for this free booklet. B17

WESTERNS IN CAGE VICTORY

Vancouver Girls Win Second Of Title Series From Edmonton Gradettes

VANCOUVER, April 22 (CP).—Vancouver Westerns took a stranglehold on the Canadian women's senior "B" basketball championship series here tonight when they defeated Edmonton Gradettes, 46-31, in the second game of the best-of-five series. Westerns won Saturday night's opener, 40-26.

Next game will be played Wednesday and if more games are necessary they will be played Thursday and Saturday.

Accurate shooting under the basket paved the way for Westerns as they grabbed an early lead that was never threatened. Gradettes passed well throughout, but were short on their shots.

Laura Strachan opened the scoring for Edmonton about three minutes after the game started, but Westerns soon found their range and rang up eight points before the visitors scored again. At the end of the quarter Vancouver was ahead, 10-4.

The British Columbia senior "A" champions outscored the Albertans, 11-9, in the second as they continued their drive and moved into a 21-13 lead at half time. Miss Strachan again led the visitors as she sank two more baskets in the period.

Westerns showed their superiority again in the third quarter as they outscored Gradettes, 12-7.

The Vancouver team went into the final quarter with a handsome lead, but still continued to press and outshot the visitors, 15-11.

DETROIT, April 22 (AP). — Mike Domenico, twenty-seven-year-old moulder from Canton, O., today shot the eighth perfect game in American Bowling Congress history.

Domenico fired the twelve straight strikes while rolling in a doubles game.

Last Monday George Pallage, of Akron, O., shot a 300 score in the A.B.C. singles.

GOLF BALL IS COSTLY

LONDON, April 22 (CP-Havas).—The highest price ever paid for a golf ball—£106 5d ($471.17)—was recorded today. The bid was at a Red Cross auction for a ball used by Henry Cotton in a thirty-six-hole four-ball match. The highest price previously paid for a golf ball at a charity sale was £100 ($445) at Leeds, last year.

OAKLAND IN FIRST PLACE

Captures Double-Header to Move Into Top Berth In Coast League

By The Associated Press

Oakland was back in first place in the Pacific Coast Baseball League today after Seattle, which led the circuit for a brief moment Saturday, lost three games in a pair of week-end double-headers to drop to third place.

The Oaks took a better hold on first place when they marched through the Sacramento Solons 5-4 and 5-1 in Sunday's games.

Milo Candini, Oakland hurler, granted only four hits in the night-cap to earn his second victory of the week and present Oakland with its fifth win in the seven-game series.

San Diego, chief claimant to Oakland's leadership, swept both ends of Sunday's double-header with Hollywood, winning 5-0 and 5-3.

Seattle split Sunday's twin bill with Los Angeles, winning the first 8-3 and losing the second 6-3. They took two drubbings Saturday night.

A five-run splurge in the eighth frame of Sunday's opener brought victory to Seattle. In the seven-inning nightcap, the Los Angeles Angels chalked up two runs in the second stanza and brought in one in each of the last four innings to assure victory.

The Portland Beavers walked over the San Francisco Seals twice on Sunday, 10-2 and 9-3, after also winning Saturday to move out of the league's cellar. Portland won the first game in the third inning when they tallied six runs on four hits, three walks and an error. In the second game the Beavers big inning was the third, when they scored four runs after two were out.

Ferris Fain, San Francisco right-fielder, hit homers for two of the Seals runs, one in the first and another in the third. Jack Burns, first-baseman, doubled to bring in the other run.

TRANSPORTATION TENDERS DELAYED

"The people in this country are going to have to think twice before they make expenditures that are not essential. They are going to have to ask themselves, 'can I do without this article or this service'."

REVIEWS ISSUE

Alderman Wills pointed out there had been no clear-cut decisions from either the council or electorate on transportation issues, and reviewed the results of two plebiscites. He claimed buses costing about $600,000 would have to be imported from the United States at a premium of 11 per cent.

"Nobody can forecast the duration of the war. How long will available supplies of oil last? The present tram service may not be efficient or just what we want, but it fills the gap," Alderman Wills declared.

"This motion was presented with extraordinary suddenness," Alderman Edward Williams commented. "We should table it for a week at least." Mayor Andrew McGavin added.

Alderman Williams stated that the council did not know what a new transportation would cost until tenders were called. He thought the motion should be considered by a committee of the whole. Between $7,000 and $8,000 had been expended on franchise investigations. He reminded Alderman Wills that some transportation company might have to spend $600,000 on buses, not the city. He moved that the motion be tabled for two weeks, and that a special meeting be called by the Mayor. When seconded by Alderman W. H. Davies, the motion carried.

Mayor McGavin asserted that the motion would not prevent the council from calling for tenders. Alderman Williams doubted if the present street cars would last for any length of time.

DEBATABLE MATTERS

Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan thought the cost of a new transportation system, and money leaving the nation, were debatable subjects. In dealing with oil supplies mentioned by Alderman Wills, he said that the B.C. Electric used large quantities when operating the Brentwood plant.

"Waving the flag is not enough. We must show our patriotism and loyalty in a practical way. We pay an added penalty for every dollar spent in the United States," Alderman B. J. Gadsden commented.

"We are not sending any money away. How do we know the plans of prospective tenderers? It would be a 'dirty trick' to throw away the work of many months. Those who contemplate tendering may have ordered vehicles a year ago," Alderman Davies stated.

Alderman Williams reminded the council that the last heard from the B.C. Electric was a year ago last December, when officials said they were prepared to operate street cars for three years.

"I have consulted nobody in regard to my motion," Alderman Wills commented. "The B.C. Electric will not see us stuck for transportation. Under the Refunding Act we cannot borrow money. We were turned down on an application for a loan to take over the Goldstream hydro-electric plant," he added.

MAYOR EXPLAINS

"Under the Debt Refunding Act we can borrow money for any self-liquidating project," Mayor McGavin corrected.

Alderman R. A. C. Dewar wondered if any company tendering on a new transportation system would be allowed to send money out of the country.

"We have made considerable progress on transportation," Alderman S. H. Okell recalled. "I think we made a mistake when we did not make definite arrangements for the operation of street cars for three years. I will not oppose the calling of tenders. We shall find out what is offering. A three-fifths majority is required from ratepayers before any tender could be accepted," he concluded.

"Suppose gasoline rose to fifty cents per gallon. A bus company would have to increase fares. I do not think the electorate would approve any change in the transportation system at this time," Alderman John A. Worthington commented.

In concluding the debate, Mayor McGavin stated, "The sub-committee on transportation has been working since August 7. It would be an injustice to taxpayers if we did not get the information we need by calling for tenders. It would not be fair."

BETTING HEAVY AT JAMAICA COURSE

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP).—New York racing and the machine age caught up with each other a week ago and the verdict is: Success.

The first week at Jamaica proved a severe and exacting test for the popularity of the mutuels. The weather was unfavorable and resulted in weak programmes, with five-horse races the vogue.

The total handle through the tote was $3,055,948, an average of $509,325 a day, with the opening day the tops, when $821,952 passed through the machines.

Off the first week's figures, turf scribes estimate that the total handle for the New York season will approximate $90,000,000.

TORONTO, April 22 (CP).—David Alexander "Dooney" Hardy, sixty-three, of Toronto, major league baseball pitcher of other years, died today. He once performed for the old Chicago Nationals, and also hurled for Toronto, Baltimore, Buffalo and Atlanta teams. In his early youth he was an outstanding amateur player in Toronto.

Best Grey Hair Remedy Is Easily Made at Home

Any man or woman with grey, faded, streaked hair can quickly and safely banish this handicap with a simple easily prepared grey hair remedy that is being used with marked success by thousands.

Here is the formula: Get from your druggist one ounce bay rum, one-fourth ounce glycerine, one box Orlex Compound. Mix these in one-half pint water, or your druggist will prepare for you at small cost. Comb this into the hair several times a week and a rich, natural-looking, uniform color is given the hair. This shade can be maintained too for only a few cents a week. Being colorless, Orlex will not stain the scalp. Will not rub off or wash out. Does not affect permanents. Is not sticky or greasy, and leaves the hair soft and glossy. If you want to look ten years younger in ten days, try the economical Orlex recipe today. (Adv.)

KIRKLAND LAKE TRIMS CALGARY IN SECOND GAME, 9-1

Walters Pitches Cincinnati Club To Easy Victory

Crowd "Puddle Jumps" Way Into Park to Watch Home Club Trim the Cardinals, 6-1—Water Is A Foot Deep in Both Dugouts—Rising Ohio River Is Cause—Pirates Turn Back Cubs

By The Canadian Press

Continuing their undefeated and errorless way, Cincinnati Reds beat St. Louis Cardinals and the Ohio River flood as well yesterday, pounding out a 6-1 National League baseball victory behind Bucky Walters' seven-hit pitching as water lapped into Crosley Field.

Two three-run innings did the job, aided in each case by a Card miscue. A crowd of 5,197 had to "puddle-jump" their way into the park.

Water stood a foot deep in both dugouts. The flood seeped into field-level seats behind third base as play was started, and with the Ohio River rising promised to cover the park by tomorrow.

Pittsburgh finally opened its 1940 baseball season at home, beating Chicago Cubs, 9-5, before 10,461 fans in the only other National League game.

Joe Bowman received credit for the Pirates' triumph, although he was replaced in the seventh by Mace Brown. The Bucs took command in the fourth when Pep Young doubled to score two mates and Bowman singled, sending Young home.

There was no dilly-dallying by Cleveland Indians, of the American Baseball League, as they defeated St. Louis Browns 5-2.

Almost before Southpaw Howard Mills had completed his warmup tosses, the Indians had scored five runs in the first inning.

CLEARS THE BASES

Hal Trosky was passed intentionally, filling the bases for Jeff Heath, of Fort William, Ont., who cleared them with a triple. Hurler Trotter stepped in and yielded a double to Ken Keltner, scoring Heath.

Harland Clift drove in all the Browns' runs, hitting a homer with Walter Judnich on base in the second inning.

Earl Averill's pinch single in the ninth inning sent two runs home and gave Detroit Tigers a 6-5 victory over Chicago White Sox in the other American League baseball game.

Detroit, trailing by three runs, punched across single tallies in the seventh and eighth to set the stage for the winning run.

Vallie Eaves, rookie White Sox righthander, starting his first major league game, was effective part of the way, but wildness annulled his efforts. Injuries forced Tiger Pitcher Lynn Nelson and Shortstop Luke Appling, of the White Sox, out of the game.

TORONTO, April 22 (CP).—Kirkland Lake Blue Devils moved within a game of amateur hockey's highest award when they swamped Calgary Stampeders, 9-1, here tonight. The young miners from Northern Ontario's gold belt won the first of the best-of-five-game series, 8-5.

The Blue Devils removed any doubt as to their superiority, as they outplayed and outscored the game Stampeders in every period. The signal for their crushing triumph came halfway through the first period, when they counted three well-earned goals within two minutes and twenty seconds.

A crowd of 9,206 fans cheered every move of the struggling Stampeders, but at no time were the Westerners a match for the speedy miners. Johnny McCreedy led the Blue Devils' scoring parade with three goals. Bob Walton and Jo Jo Graboski counted two each, and Joe Brown and Hal Cooper completed the total.

Calgary's lone marker came late in the first period after a three-goal splurge by the Blue Devils. Howie Hill scored when he deflected Sid Fenn's shot from the blue line. Hill was just outside the crease and Bill Durnan, who performed brilliantly in the Kirkland Lake net, had no chance to save.

Walton, Brown and Cooper scored in short order, and Hill's counter capped the scoring in the first period. McCreedy clicked for the only goal of the second session. Walton sandwiched a goal between a pair by McCreedy in the third period before Graboski fired the Blue Devils' eighth and ninth goals.

Les Thirlwell, Calgary left winger, suffered a severe thigh cut in the first period and was rushed to hospital. Coach Marty Burke said it was not known whether Thirlwell would be able to start in the third game, Wednesday night.

BUSY BEE IN PLAY-OFF WIN

Defeats Good Eats Cafe in Senior Fivepin Final at Arcade Alleys

Toppling the pins for nearly unbelievable totals in the fourth and final games, which they won despite the strong efforts of the opposition, Nick Lerik's Busy Bee Cafe fivepin squad defeated Good Eats Cafe in the play-off for the Senior Fivepin League honors last night at the Arcade Alleys. Lerik himself set the pace for his team by spilling the wood for a 1,229 total for the five games, three pins better than the veteran Art Harness.

Busy Bee Cafe dropped the first but came back to even the score by winning the next one. Back came their cafe rivals to move into the lead once again by capturing the third, but Lerik's boys really went to town in the last two games and they toppled wood into runways with monotonous regularity to take the honors.

Rugby Union Names 1940-41 Officials At Annual Meeting

Majority of Executive Members Returned to Office —Major Stuart Robertson Is President—Will Try to Organize Private Schools in League

Late in starting, but gaining momentum right after the opening fixtures, English Rugby closed a trying 1939-40 season with a substantial bank balance, according to the report of Roddy McInnes, treasurer, presented at the annual meeting held last night in The Colonist board room.

Faced with many trying moments following the outbreak of hostilities, the Victoria Rugby Union held a number of meetings in a bold effort to keep the game going. Major Stuart Robertson, their president, was called up to duty, and the task of getting things moving was left with Jack Ruttan, vice-president. This young lawyer and former player stepped into the breach in grand fashion, and last night was complimented on his fine work during a most trying playing term.

Highlight of the season's activities was Victoria's success in the annual McKechnie Cup series, where they retained the historic trophy and the provincial championship. Two inter-city cup battles here attracted nearly 2,000 people to Macdonald Park, and outdrew the aggregate attendance for local fixtures.

PRESENT CUPS

During the evening Alderman Stanley Okell, chairman of the city parks board, presented the Rounsefell Cup, symbolic of the British Columbia championship to Gordon Petticrew, member of the J.B.A.A. fifteen. Alderman John Worthington presented the Barnard Cup, emblematic of the city senior honors, to Frank Doheny, of the Oarsmen. The city fathers spoke briefly, congratulating the winning clubs, players and members of the Victoria Rugby Union on their showing during the year.

There was considerable discussion on the "split season" proposal for Canadian football and English Rugby, but definite action on the move was deferred pending the annual meeting here on Sunday of the B.C.R.U. Opinions were divided on the scheme, some members even going so far as to suggest that each sport "paddle its own canoe." There was, however, a feeling that the two organizations should co-operate at every opportunity.

A determined effort will be made to organize the private schools and bring them within the scope of the intermediate league. The addition of such clubs would provide better games, the delegates felt, and be the means of boosting interest in the sport here.

ANNUAL REPORTS

Annual reports were submitted by Vice-President Jack Ruttan, Secretary Bob Poyntz, Treasurer Roddy McInnes and C. E. Ley, chairman of the referees' board. Major Stuart Robertson, retiring president, spoke of his inability to attend regular meetings of the Victoria Rugby Union, but assured the delegates that his interest was still in the game. He told of representing the local body at B.C.R.U. sessions and spoke of the excellent harmony existing in that body.

Team delegates expressed their thanks to Ruttan, called into action as chairman when Major Robertson was unable to act.

Representatives were pleased to hear that indications point to a number of service fifteens playing Rugby next season. It was suggested that the Canadian Scottish Regiment and the Royal Canadian Artillery would enter clubs in the 1940-41 schedule.

Reg Clarke, first aid man in attendance at all matches at Macdonald Park, was warmly thanked for his splendid work during the season. The union decided to act on his suggestion that first aid equipment be placed at Macdonald Park.

Ron Burns, former player, spoke of speeding up the game. No action was taken, however, but the proposal will be placed before the provincial delegates in session here Sunday morning.

IS RE-ELECTED

Major Stuart Robertson, retiring president, was returned to office for another year. In accepting the post the chief executive expressed his thanks to the delegates for their confidence, and stated his willingness to work to the best of his ability in the interest of the game here.

Dick Nixon, chairman of the Intermediate League schedule committee last season, was named first vice-president, and Ron M. Burns was the choice for the position of second vice-president. Bobby Poyntz and Roddy McInnes, secretary and treasurer, respectively, were re-elected. Bob Wallis was returned as chairman of the intermediate loop, and R. H. "Bob" McInnes was again named chairman of the school league.

Hon. E. W. Hamber was named patron, and the following honorary officers were chosen: Presidents, Premier T. D. Pattullo, Mayor A. McGavin; vice-presidents, Commodore V. G. Brodeur, Brigadier C. B. Stockwell, Air Commodore A. E. Godfrey, Col. R. Kingham, Capt. G. C. James, Carew Martin, George Jay, A. T. Goward, Hon. W. J. Asselstine, C. Swayne, K. C. Drury, A. Gillespie, W. C. Moresby, K.C.; R. P. Taylor, Magistrate H. C. Hall, Alderman S. Okell, Alderman J. Worthington and G. Deane.

WESTS TROUNCE ESQUIMALT, 7-1

Reach Jackson Cup Final by Scoring Easy Victory Over Dockers In Semi-Finals

Victoria West moved into the final of the Jackson Cup competition Sunday afternoon at Bullen Park when they trounced Esquimalt in the semi-final round before a large turnout by a 7-1 score. The greenshirts, league champions this season, will now clash with Victoria City for the silverware. The date for this match will be announced later by officials.

The Wests took a big lead over the Dockers in the first half, driving in five goals without a reply from Esquimalt's front line of attack. In the final forty-five minutes, the greenshirted lads ran in two more tallies while Esquimalt managed to avert a whitewashing by bagging their lone marker.

Alex Dallimore scored the first West goal and then Barnswell missed a good chance for Esquimalt when he failed to score from the penalty spot. Dallimore then added another and Kitching found the net for the Wests' third tally. Before the half ended, Dallimore added another and Munroe made it 5-0 before the half-time whistle sounded. John Watt missed another penalty shot for the Dockers, but Barnswell made up for it with a goal minutes later. Cooper and Dallimore scored before the finish for the winners. Near the end Fred Williams and Jim Stewart were ordered from the field by Referee Dowds for fighting.

DOMINION STARS WALLACE BEERY

"The Man From Dakota" Co-Stars Dolores Del Rio and John Howard, Here Today

A typically action-filled comedy-heavy performance by Wallace Beery, a sparkling return to the screen by Dolores Del Rio and a stalwart and convincing characterization by John Howard combine to provide thrilling entertainment in "The Man From Dakota," which opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

It is a Civil War story which gives Beery opportunity for all of his familiar and enjoyable antics as a Yankee prisoner of war who escapes the Confederate prison at Belle Isle and, with his young and idealistic superior officer, portrayed by Howard, sets out to find a haven, preferably far out West. As a Russian girl who also becomes a fugitive, Miss Del Rio has a role which gives her fine and emotional possibilities which she more than lives up to.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Atlas—"The Earl of Chicago," with Robert Montgomery.

Cadet — William Powell in "Another Thin Man."

Capitol—Bing Crosby in "The Road to Singapore."

Dominion—"The Man From Dakota," with Dolores Del Rio.

Oak Bay — James Stewart in "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington."

Plaza—"North Sea Patrol," with Geoffrey Toone.

Rio—Alice Faye in "Hollywood Cavalcade."

ATLAS THEATRE "The Earl of Chicago," which ends today at the Atlas Theatre, was a lucky picture for Hollywood's English colony, with eighty-two Englishmen cast in the picture which stars Robert Montgomery. Virtually every English actor in the movies appears in the film which has a cast of 159 players.

CADET THEATRE Celebrated for having created a refreshing recipe for mystery pictures by combining thrills with the gay and witty banter of the ideal married couple, the famous "Thin Man" series renews its rollicking progress with "Another Thin Man," now showing at the Cadet Theatre.

CAPITOL THEATRE Five new song hits—count 'em — including such numbers as "Too Romantic," "The Moon and the Willow Tree" and "Kaigoon"—are heard, and at least five hundred comedy gags are registered in the new Paramount picture, "Road to Singapore," which ends today at the Capitol Theatre, starring Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope.

PLAZA THEATRE The outstanding star of "North Sea Patrol," the Alliance Films timely melodrama, which is now showing at the Plaza Theatre, is the magnificent British Navy. In her full power and glory, the navy provides the greatest thrills and most spectacular scenes as she takes to the waves, girded for war action on the high seas.

RIO THEATRE Great stars of today and great personalities of yesterday tell the heart-warming story of the men and women who conquered the entertainment world in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Hollywood Cavalcade," starring Alice Faye and Don Ameche, which is now showing at the Rio Theatre.

OAK BAY THEATRE A group of Hollywood technicians known as "The Capra Crew," worked with Frank Capra on Columbia's sensational drama, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," which co-stars Jean Arthur and James Stewart at the Oak Bay Theatre. From chief cameraman to "props," the group is exactly the same which helped the director so effectively in filming "It Happened One Night," "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," and other Capra hits.

Oh, Boy! MY NEW C·C·M· IS SUPER

EVERY BOY knows that a C.C.M. is "super" even before he gets one because all his pals tell him. This is proved beyond doubt when he becomes the proud possessor of his very own C.C.M. and exclaims "Oh, Boy! My new C.C.M. is super."

And is it any wonder that most boys and girls feel this way about C.C.M. bicycles when they provide such smooth, comfortable, easy-running cycling year after year. Such performance is the result of careful machining and fitting of every component in the three fast-moving parts of a C.C.M. Bicycle — the front Hub — the Main Sprocket-hanger and the C.C.M. Coaster Brake. Then, too, only the best and most suitable steels are used in making C.C.M. bicycles and all moving parts are specially treated and hardened to give longer life.

C.C.M. Bicycles are made in a variety of models from the light Road-Racer illustrated to such models as the "Delivery" which has extra reinforcements to carry heavy loads.

Boys! the time is ripe for you to get a bicycle so go to your nearest C.C.M. dealer now and select the model which suits you best. Then you will say "Oh, Boy! My new C.C.M. is super." 71P

Specialties Turn Upward Again in New York Mart

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP).—Specialties again turned upward in today's stock market, while most leaders encountered just enough selling to hold them within a narrowly irregular range. The list got off to a fairly good start, moped for a while, then posted the best prices of the day, running to around a point or so after noon. Dealings thereafter slackened, and extreme gains were cut or canceled at the close.

The Associated Press average of sixty stocks was able to retain a net advance of .1 of a point at 50. Transfers totaled 868,990 shares against 1,154,990 last Friday.

Saturday's brisk rally did much to prop speculative sentiment, although conflicting dispatches from the European war zone left Wall Street somewhat timid.

Business news at home was fairly good, notwithstanding some disappointment shown over a more than expected drop in this week's estimated steel mill production.

New 1940 peaks were reached by International Paper preferred, Swift, Armour, American Bosch, Celanese and Bush Terminal.

Emerging with modest advances were American Car & Foundry, Electric Boat, Radio Corp., Allied Mills, United Aircraft, Bethlehem Steel, Union Carbide, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Marshall Field, Montgomery Ward, General Motors, Chrysler, Great Northern and U.S. Rubber.

On the offside were American Airlines, Eastern Air Lines, Lockheed, Glenn Martin, Douglas Aircraft, Sears Roebuck, U.S. Steel, N.Y. Central, Anaconda, American Smelting and Westinghouse.

A few foreign Government dollar loans, including some Latin Americans, found favor today in traders' eyes, but the corporate section of the bond market was largely static.

Some of the individual industrials and rails made fair gains in the limited dealings.

Among advances in the foreign list were obligations of Japan, Argentina, Buenos Aires, Copenhagen, Denmark and Uruguay.

United States Government were uneven, closing 7-32 point higher to 11-32 lower.

DOW JONES AVERAGES

Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:

Thirty industrials, 148.01; up .34.
Twenty rails, 30.63; up .03.
Fifteen utilities, 24.65; up .02.
Forty bonds, 88.98; up .08.
Total sales, 870,000.

FIRM MARKET IN WHEAT FUTURES

WINNIPEG, April 22 (CP).—July and October wheat prices made new seasonal highs during a quiet but firm session on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. Trading was only moderately active, with most of the steadiness attributed to light offerings and scattered purchases by mills and commission houses.

Final quotations were 1-8 cent lower to 1-8 cent higher, with May wheat at 91, July 92 3-4, and October 94 3-4 cents a bushel. At their highs, July touched 93 1-2 and October 95 3-8 cents.

Overseas sales of Canadian wheat were confined to odd lots, and were not expected to exceed 150,000 bushels.

Chicago wheat prices finished 3-4 cent lower to 3-8 higher after a shaky day while Buenos Aires values added about a cent.

In the cash wheat market, Eastern houses were credited with taking small amounts of Nos. 3 and 4 Northern.

Good buying by export houses and domestic interests came out in oats in the coarse grain pit, while flax prices lost 4 cents on stop-loss selling which earlier in the session knocked more than 6 cents off their totals.

What Today Means

"TAURUS"

If April 23 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:15 a.m. until 1:15 p.m., from 2:15 to 4:15 p.m., and from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m., from 5:15 to 7:15 p.m., and from 9:15 to 11:15 p.m.

You may discover that you have been only fooling yourself if, during the day, you think you have succeeded in pulling the wool over anyone's eyes. Be sure to give the average person credit for having their full share of common sense, if you wish to save yourself from a series of unfortunate events. You cannot expect to have your own way today without anyone showing the slightest opposition to it. Only through the making of concessions will it be possible to get through today without quarreling, so be prepared to make them. Those who think they can win their objective point by walking roughshod to it, are liable to discover that they are mistaken. Married and engaged couples, as well as sweethearts, are likely to discover that persuasive methods are far more efficacious than will any bordering on being bulldozing.

If a woman, and April 23 is your birthday, you may be too independent for your own good. Do not be too ready to decline proffers of assistance or friendly suggestions. You will find that there is generally always a means for you to attain any end, providing you persist in seeking it. Do not neglect your friends, if you expect to retain them. There is danger in your shelving all forms of social activities, so make it a point to evince a definite interest in them. To meet up with opportunity you must frequent the highways and byways where you are most likely to encounter it. Through secretarial, social welfare, political, journalistic, artistic, dramatic, musical, or a mercantile line of work, you may discover the ways and means of advancing your fortune and making a worthwhile name for yourself. Your achievements as a wife are apt to be noteworthy and their results most satisfying.

The child born on April 23 is usually an ambitious youngster, who is seldom satisfied to take a back seat or to have its presence ignored. Children born on this date generally demand a lot of attention, and if they fail to get it frequently become discontented and unhappy.

If a man, and April 23 is your natal day, it might be well for you to remember: "Knowledge and timber shouldn't be much used till they are seasoned." It will probably be only when you are thoroughly familiar with every detail of your work or the tricks of your trade or profession, that success will come to you. Law, medicine, horticulture, agriculture, exploration, manufacturing, politics, and salesmanship, are among the activities in which you should do extremely well.

According to Culbertson

Expert defenders have such healthy respect for and fear of elimination and throw-in plays that they invariably take every precaution against being the victim of this manoeuvre. In today's hand West performed a very neat escape trick.

South, dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♣	1 ♥	Pass	Pass
Double	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
2 N.T.	Pass	3 N.T.	Pass
Pass	Pass

Needless to say, South overbid. His take-out double of one heart was correct, but when his partner could do no more than bid two clubs South had to be very optimistic to hope for game. But it is probable, nevertheless, that he would have "gotten away with it" against a less skillful defender than West.

The fourth highest heart was West's opening lead. Declarer won, and saw that a great deal of luck would be necessary if nine tricks were to be brought home. On the wild hope that he would find the king of clubs only singly guarded in the East hand (since dummy had only one club lead through), he entered the dummy with the ace of diamonds, and took a club finesse. When the ten held the ace was laid down. To declarer's disappointment, West failed to follow, discarding a heart. Because he could think of no other trick-taking possibilities declarer proceeded with his club establishment, leading a third round. Again West discarded a heart, and East won with the king, returning a low spade. Declarer now had a glimmer of hope; he went up with the ace and cashed his last club, and West made his third heart discard on this trick. The declarer now attempted to throw on lead by laying down the king and a small diamond, but West had carefully preserved his diamonds against this very eventuality. On the king he threw not a low one but the queen, and now instead of being forced to play from his queen of spades (after cashing the ace and king of hearts) West stayed off the lead entirely. East won, cashed his good diamond, and returned another spade which effectively spiked declarer's guns.

It should be noted that had West failed to hold on to all of his diamonds, or had he failed to unblock the queen, nine tricks would have been a simple matter for the declarer.

Naval Court to Deal With Case

A young sailor, William Buxton, was given suspended sentence when he appeared before Magistrate Henry C. Hall, convicted of a charge of stealing an automobile, in the Esquimalt Police Court yesterday afternoon.

A senior naval officer testified as to Buxton's good character and informed the magistrate that he would be dealt with by the naval court.

Magistrate Hall warned the prisoner of the seriousness of the offence, which ordinarily carried a sentence of one year. As the naval authorities would handle the man, he said that no surety would be required, but Buxton would be bound over in his own recognizance in the sum of $100 to maintain good behavior for six months.

CRASHED IN BELGIUM

BRUSSELS, April 22 (AP).—A German warplane, shot down in a fight with three French fighters, crashed today at Narcimont, near Neufchateau, in the Belgian province of Luxembourg. The pilot was dead in the wreckage.

CHAPTER XLIX

"No letters here," Prentiss announced.

"Maybe I ate them," Jim suggested.

"If you did we'll rip you open and get them," Prentiss snarled.

Lamprey was white as a sheet. This was not a business to his liking. Moreover, the fear was in him that his turn would come. He said nothing, but terror showed in his eyes.

"If your looking for helpful advice, Mosely," Silcott said, "I would advise you and your gang to light out muy pronto. The soldiers ought to be here any minute now."

Roan Judson slid a quick look at his boss. That might be the truth, even if the warning came from an enemy.

"Don't try to fool us, Silcott," the Hat T owner snapped. "You came here alone. But since you mentioned the soldiers you might tell us how they came to be planted in the postoffice."

"Oh, I thought that out," Jim answered coolly. "Soon as I found that vaquero on my trail I decided to give him something to report to you. So I made the postoffice play, and you swallowed it hook, line and sinker. Naturally I figured you would try to get the package back soon as it was dark."

"You haven't a spy among us?" Mosely asked, his hard eyes trying to beat down those of the prisoner. "Jess Lamprey, maybe."

"No." Silcott shook his head. "Don't need one. Any kid could guess you out."

Anger flamed up in the big stockman. "Maybe you can guess what I'll do next," he said cruelly.

Jim was putting on the trousers that had been tossed back to him after Prentiss searched his clothes. He knew he was in a desperate situation, but no sign of it appeared in his easy manner. He was going to be tortured, but no matter what they did to him he must keep his mouth shut. It was not a matter of obstinacy, but of life or death. For if he told them where the letters were and Mosely got hold of them, his life would be snuffed out beyond a shadow of a doubt. He must bite on one fact and let no agony deflect him from it, that Mosely would not kill him until the letters were in his possession.

"Some things I don't need to guess about," he said hardily. "For instance, I know that when you get in a jam, as you are now, you'll slide out if you can and let some of the boys here pay the price. You've got the Government on your neck now, but maybe you'll be slick enough to fix it so the boys can go to the pen instead of you."

Pete Yeager laughed, mirthlessly. It was quite likely that what Red Silcott said might turn out to be true prophecy. There was no loyalty in Mosely. If it ever paid him to toss overboard his tools he would do it without hesitation.

"Looks like he knows you, Russ," Pete jeered.

"He'll know me better before I'm through with him," Mosely answered. "And you may too, Pete, if you're not careful."

"It sure looks like we're here pulling yor chestnuts outa the hot coals for you," the fat little man flung back at his employer. "And while we're talking turkey, I'll mention that I don't scare, Russ."

Jim picked up his shirt to put it on, but Prentiss snatched it from him. "You're not going to need that right away," he sneered, with a savage laugh. "We're gonna have a little fun first, you'n me."

From his waist he unstrapped his heavy leather belt. "Better gag him, boys, so he won't sing too loud," Jud said.

Silcott lashed out at Judson with his right as the man tried to seize him. In the melee that followed Yeager met a flying fist that landed on the eye. But the odds were too great. Jim was flung down, gagged, and stretched out face dow. The belt hissed through the air, buckle end out, and landed on the bare back of the prisoner. The white flesh winced, but no sound came from the tortured man except his heavy broken breathing. After a time Mosely stopped his foreman.

"If you'd like to give any information about these letters, hunch your shoulders," he said.

Silcott made no sign. Again the buckle thudded down on the torn and bleeding back. At last Lamprey cried out in protest.

"For God's sake, that's enough, Russ! You'll kill him."

There was a convulsive shudder of Jim's body and then slack limpness.

"He's fainted," Yeager said. "No use, boss. He'll never talk. Too game." Sharply he added, "And there'll be no more of this."

Mosely looked down, a bitter savagery in his face, at the torn and bleeding flesh criss-crossed with wheals from the leather and ripped by gashes from the buckle.

"I've got a way to make him talk," he said. A devil looked out of his eyes. He had gone too far to retreat now. He was no longer a wise and crafty leader, but a man driven and harried to desperate chances.

Jesse Lamprey rose to his feet, sick and trembling. Under orders from Prentiss he had been clinging to one of Silcott's wrists. He leaned his head against the wall to cover his face.

"Leave him alone," Mosely ordered harshly, his frowning gaze still on the prisoner. "Till you see me again. I'll be back — soon."

"Where you going?" Judson asked suspiciously.

LOOKING AHEAD

"How's business?" asked one businessman of another in a Berlin street.

"Better," said No. 2.

"Really!" queried the surprised No. 1.

"Yes, better than tomorrow."

LICENCE YEAR NOW ANALYZED

B.C. Motor Drivers Number 158,273, Using 120,149 Vehicles Last Year

Some 158,273 drivers were on provincial highways last year in British Columbia, 117,000 of them tested for drivers' examinations and the remainder awaiting testing, it was revealed yesterday by the Motor Record Office of the Provincial Police. In the same year, 120,149 registered vehicles had been licensed, compared with 117,350 vehicles in the year previous.

In the motor licence year 1939-40, new drivers' licences were issued to 11,764 individuals, exclusive of 134,392 renewals by existing drivers, 2,124 persons carrying blue tickets, and ninety-four with the yellow cards. In addition, 299 new chauffeurs' licences were issued, as well as 9,302 renewals, 297 blue licences, and eleven chauffeurs who received yellow tickets.

MORE VEHICLES

Vehicle registration at the end of the year included 96,737 passenger cars, and 23,412 commercial vehicles, compared with 94,346 cars and 23,005 commercial type vehicles in the year before.

Examination of motor drivers continues, mainly at outlying parts of the Province, with between 45,000 and 50,000 drivers yet to receive their initial certificates, provincial motor record officials said. Traveling testing units are on their way through municipal areas of the Province, both on Vancouver Island and on the Mainland.

GREAT BRITAIN CHIEF MARKET

B.C. Lumber Exports to United Kingdom Reach 230,171,438 Board Feet

Great Britain ordered 230,171,438 of 309,605,607 board feet of lumber shipped by water from British Columbia in the first quarter of this year, according to lumber inspection figures in provincial hands yesterday. Waterborne exports for the first three months compared with 313,607,024 board feet shipped in the corresponding quarter of 1939.

United Kingdom imports increased from 167,708,932 board feet, to 230,171,438 board feet in the waterborne movement from this coast, exclusive of rail haul across Canada.

Waterborne exports by months this year was reported as follows: January 116,170,912 board feet; February 97,486,969 board feet, and March 95,947,726 board feet.

The progressive decline of waterborne movements in the period was said to be accounted for in part by the commencement of rail haul across Canada, under the new Empire transit scheme.

1 BIRTHS

MABER—To Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Haddon Maber (nee Gwladys Birch) at St. Joseph's Hospital, April 22, a son.

2 DEATHS

LYALL—There passed away on Friday evening, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Peter Lyall, aged sixty-six years, of 1734 Hollywood Crescent. The late Mr. Lyall was born in Scotland and had been a resident of this city for the last fifteen years and for many years of North Portal, Saskatchewan. He is mourned by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. George Fordyce, of North Portal; also four sons, Gordon, of Eugene, Oregon, Reid Lyall, of North Portal, and Robert Douglas and Russell, of Victoria, and eight grandchildren. He was a member of the A.F. & A.M.
The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon, from McCall Brothers' Funeral Home, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Hugh McLeod, pastor of First United Church, will conduct the service, after which interment will be made in Colwood Burial Park.

GRANT—There passed away Sunday, April 21, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Margaret Grant, of 823 Penwell Street. Born at Elgin, Scotland, the late Mrs. Grant, who was seventy-four years of age, had resided in the city for the past twenty years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. M. G. Wilson, 846 Courtney Street, with whom the late Mrs. Grant had resided; also two sons, Alexander, in Montreal, and John R., at Buffalo.
Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the parlors of the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home. Interment will take place in the Colwood Burial Park.

ELDRIDGE—At the Aged Women's Home, there passed away Saturday, April 20, Jennie Eldridge, at the age of seventy-three years. Born at Sydenham, Grey County, Ontario, the late Mrs. Eldridge had resided for over forty years at Salmon Arm, B.C., and moved to this city five years ago. She is survived by one sister, in Eastern Canada.
Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon, Tuesday, April 23, at 2 o'clock, from the parlors of the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home. Rev. James Hood will officiate and interment will take place in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

BUTTERS—On April 21, 1940, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Thomas Herbert Butters, of 901 Easter Road, Saanich, seventy-one years, born in Portsmouth, England, and came to Canada sixty-one years ago, and had been a resident of this district for fifteen years. Survived by a daughter, Mrs. A. C. Wilde, and a son, Herbert Butters, both of Vernon, B.C., and a sister, Mrs. Lowe, of Bexley, England.
The remains are resting in Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel and will be forwarded this afternoon to Vernon, B.C., and services will be held in Lumby, B.C., on Wednesday at 2.30, and interment will also be made in Lumby.

LOTHIAN—On Monday, April 22, at the family residence, 20 Bushby Street, William Lothian, aged eighty-three years. The late Mr. Lothian was born in Dunbar, Scotland, and had been a resident of this city for the last twenty-seven years and a resident for many years of Pipestone, Man. He is mourned by two sons, Thomas Norman, of Vancouver, B.C., and John G., in Pipestone, Manitoba, and one daughter, Miss Catherine M. Lothian, at home; also a brother and sister in North Berwick, Scotland, and a brother in Melbourne, Australia, and one brother, Robert, in Ranfurly, Alberta. His youngest son, Robert Inglis Lothian, was killed in 1916 in the Great War.
The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon from McCall Bros.' Funeral Home at 2 o'clock. Rev. Hugh McLeod, pastor of First United Church, will conduct the service, after which interment will be made in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park. (Friends are requested to kindly omit flowers.)

PRICE—At the Royal Jubilee Hospital on April 21, 1940, Mary Ann Price, widow of William Henry Price, of 972 Walker Street, in her seventy-second year, born in Bury, Lancashire, England, and a resident of Victoria for forty-six years. Survived by two sons, Chester E. Price, Victoria, and Victor Stanley Price, Pennsylvania; two stepsons, George H. and Joseph A. Price, Victoria; one daughter, Mrs. W. McCarrison, Victoria, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. A. E. Cullin, Seattle.
Funeral from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick officiating. Interment in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

JACKSON—On Sunday, April 21, at Cordova Bay, Mary Ellen Jackson, aged seventy-three years, wife of Christopher Jackson of Spruce Lake, Sask. The late Mrs. Jackson was born in Lanark County, Ontario, and had resided in Saskatchewan for many years before coming to reside here one year ago. She is survived by, besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Stella Wooff, North Battleford, Sask., and Mrs. Louise Milligan, Summerland, B.C., and four sons, Herbert M., Nelson Victor and Merril Christopher, all of Spruce Lake, Sask., and Arthur M., of Summerland, B.C.; also nine grandchildren.
The remains were forwarded by McCall Bros. on Monday afternoon's boat, accompanied by Mr. Jackson, to Spruce Lake, Sask., where interment will take place. (Ontario papers please copy.)

"TO THE MANNER BORN"

Written wrongly "to the manor born," because of the erroneous assumption that the allusion is to birth amid noble surroundings, this phrase is popularly used to describe one who fits naturally into high places, upon whom distinction falls as an appropriate garment.

As a matter of fact, "manner" is an old variant form of "manor," so that in a sense the expression comes rightfully by its flavor of thrones and feudal distinctions.

It is because of their appearance in "Hamlet" that the words attained general currency.

Hamlet criticizes the King for observing an old custom of midnight revelry.

Asked, "Is it a custom?" Hamlet replies:

"Ay, marry, is't;
But to my mind—though I am native here,
And to the manner born—it is a custom
More honor'd in the breach than in the observance."

Shakespeare used the phrase here to describe familiarity with local ways and with no implication of the drawing of social lines, the latter being the significance which, through a misconception of its original sense, the idiom has acquired in its modern application.

B.C. INCREASE IN LOG SCALES

Provincial Returns Show 726,733,137 Board Feet Of Saw Logs Handled

British Columbia increased its saw log scale to 726,733,137 board feet in the first quarter of the current year, from 587,734,104 board feet measured between January and March, inclusively, last year, provincial reports showed yesterday. The bulk of the cut was in fir, with western hemlock and cedar next in proportion.

In addition to the log scale, 2,631,039 lineal feet of poles and piling; 35,668 cords of cut wood, and 66,217 ties were handled during the three months' period; this comparing with 1,699,740 lineal feet of poles, 39,461 cords, and 110,450 ties in the corresponding period of 1939. Log exports were considered normal.

The saw log scale by months was as follows: January, 227,517,670 feet; February, 256,009,998 feet, and March, 243,245,469 feet, totaling 726,733,137 board feet at March 31 last.

While the figures implied a decided increase in operations in the first quarter over the corresponding period last year, some curtailment set in this month, with a reduction of total crews in the woods and the closure of some of the smaller camps, provincial officials reported.

SHOW COLOR FILMS TAKEN ON HOLIDAY

Technicolor motion pictures of highlight views of a motor trip trip through the United States were shown to fellow Gyros at their luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday by Harry Savage.

Mr. Savage described the pictures which showed scenes at the World's Fair and New York City itself, Boston, Miami, New Orleans, the Grand Canyon, New Mexico, Santa Fe, Palm Springs and other California beauty spots.

William J. Clark occupied the chair and Harold L. Butteris thanked the speaker.

Court of Appeal

Victoria Sittings

Pope vs. Pope—Judgment was reserved at the conclusion of the hearing of this appeal yesterday. The case concerns the enforcement of a contract entered into between Col. Edgar Pope, the first Mrs. Pope and the second Mrs. Pope, whereby Col. Pope and the woman who was later to become his second wife agreed to pay the first Mrs. Pope $150 a month for the maintenance of herself and her children.

D. M. Gordon, counsel for the first Mrs. Pope, contended that this agreement should be enforced because it was not given for bad consideration and was not against public policy. He stated that the real agreement was between Col. Pope and the first Mrs. Pope concerning alimony to be paid to her after divorce, and that such an agreement, especially since the two parties had been separated for some years, was perfectly valid. The second Mrs. Pope entered the picture purely as a banker for Col. Pope. She helped to supply some of the funds which went to make up the monthly payments. This agreement did not drive Col. and Mrs. Pope apart, for they had been separated for years. Counsel further stated that there was no evidence to show that the first Mrs. Pope had definite knowledge that the colonel and the woman who later became his second wife were at the time of the contract contemplating matrimony. In fact, they did not marry until one year after the divorce. Even if the document were illegal it had been followed for sixteen years, and the parties had acted as if it were valid. Therefore, a further contract containing the identical terms but without the taint of illegality should be enforced.

SEEKS PERMISSION TO DESTROY LOONS PREYING ON FISH

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, April 22—A large attendance of members was reported at the monthly meeting of the Malahat Board of Trade, held recently in the S.L.A.A. Hall. The president, H. P. Smith, presided, and admitted P. G. Cudlip as a new member.

The question of loons destroying fish was discussed. Permission for the destruction of loons will be sought from the Department of Mines and Resources. The opening of the Mill Stream for fishing (closed since 1937) will be requested.

The co-operation of the Public Works Department will be sought in eliminating a dangerous curve on the Old Victoria Road, in the village of Shawnigan.

Delegates will be selected, at the next meeting, for the annual convention to be held this year at Nanaimo.

NOTED INVENTOR DEAD

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 22 (AP)—Charles Summer Tainter, eighty-five, physicist and inventor once associated with Alexander Graham Bell, died on Saturday night. With his hard wax disc record, Tainter was credited with having made phonographs commercially possible. He was the inventor of the dictograph and he was the first to transmit sound through the agency of light. He also was known as the "father of the talkies."

WELL COACHED

How did that parrot of yours learn to talk so quickly? He couldn't say a word when I was here last week.

I know; but my wife's mother has been paying us a visit since then.
